BALTIMORE ORIOLES

PETER ANGELOS

MANAGING PARTNER

Peter Angelos, the Principal Owner and Managing Partner of the Baltimore Orioles, has brought dynamic leadership to the ballclub and to the community since he and his fellow investors restored the team to local ownership in August, 1993.

Under his 25-year stewardship, the Orioles have reached the American League Championship Series three times and the playoffs five times, led the league in attendance five times – the first times in franchise history – and hosted such historic occasions as the first games between a Major League Baseball team and Cuba in nearly 40 years and Cal Ripken's 2,131st consecutive game.

Mr. Angelos is an industry leader in professional baseball who has helped strengthen the national pastime. He was the only owner to serve on the committee that negotiated the historic 2002 labor agreement between Major League Baseball and the MLB Players Association – the first such agreement without a strike in the 30-plus years of labor negotiations between the groups.

The Orioles owner has also utilized baseball as a bridge among people. In 1999, he led the effort to have the Orioles and a team of Cuba's best players engage in a historic two-game series in the two countries, a match-up viewed as a way to transcend politics and bring about closer cultural and social ties between the people of the United States and Cuba. He also helped to develop the first baseball team to represent Greece in Olympic baseball competition at the 2004 Olympics in Athens and thereafter to establish baseball on a permanent basis for Greek youth.

At Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Mr. Angelos has taken constructive steps off the field to cultivate an affordable, family-friendly entertainment experience. The club also embraces one of the most fan-friendly food policies in all of professional sports, allowing outside food and beverages to be brought into the ballpark.

Mr. Angelos grew up in the industrial neighborhood of Highlandtown in East Baltimore. He graduated from Patterson Park High School and from the University of Baltimore, where he was valedictorian of his class at the School of Law. An attorney since 1961, he has built the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos, P.C., into one of the nation's leading personal injury law firms representing the victims of harmful products. Throughout his legal career, Mr. Angelos has served as a champion for ordinary citizens and has taken on some of the most powerful corporations in the country, including asbestos manufacturers, the tobacco companies, and the pharmaceutical industry.

Mr. Angelos and his wife, Georgia, have two sons, John and Louis, both of whom have been intensely involved in the business operations of the Orioles since the first year this ownership group purchased the team.

OWNERSHIP OF THE ORIOLES

On October 4, 1993, American League owners unanimously approved the sale of ownership of the Orioles from then-principal shareholder Eli S. Jacobs to a group of investors led by Baltimorean Peter Angelos. The sale placed the Orioles in local hands for the first time since 1979, when Jerold C. Hoffberger, representing his family, which owned a controlling interest in both the Orioles and the National Brewing Company, sold the franchise to prominent Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams.

From October 29, 1953, when the transfer of the St. Louis Browns franchise became official until Williams purchased the club late in 1979, the Baltimore Baseball Club, Inc. was publicly held and was operated by a group of Baltimore investors which owned a majority share of the BBCI. Among those who played key roles in the operation of the franchise during that 26-year period were: Former chief executives Clarence Miles, who organized the group that secured the St. Louis Browns for Baltimore and who served as the club's first president; James Keelty, Jr.; Joseph A. W. Iglehart; Jerry Hoffberger, and Zanvyl Krieger.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

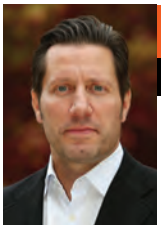
JOHN P. ANGELOS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Now in his 25th season with the Orioles, John Angelos is responsible for the day-to-day business operations of the club. Angelos joined the organization in January 1994 as Special Assistant to the Chairman and oversaw the reorganization of the Sales, Ticketing, Ballpark Operations, and Customer Service departments of the franchise to provide more personal service to fans.

In January 1999, he was named to the position of Executive Vice President, when his responsibilities expanded to include all marketing and promotion, sales, broadcasting, operations, and general and administrative areas, and all business operations of the franchise. In 2001, as part of his broadcasting development role, Angelos participated in the institution and development of Orioles Television, the in-house television production, sales, and distribution arm of the Orioles franchise that would later evolve into the full-time regional sports television network MASN in 2005. Today, he oversees operations for the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network.

After graduating from the Gilman School in Baltimore, Angelos received a bachelor's degree in political science from Duke University and earned a law degree (J.D.) from the University of Baltimore Law School.



LOUIS ANGELOS

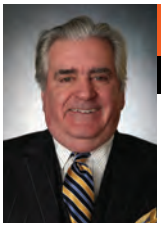
OWNERSHIP REPRESENTATIVE

Louis Angelos serves in the capacity of ownership representative for the Baltimore Orioles and has had an active role in all aspects of operations as well as a variety of strategic, business, and goodwill projects on behalf of the team since the club was acquired by the present ownership group in 1993.

In 1998, Angelos was a member of the Orioles delegation that traveled to Havana, Cuba to discuss a historic people-to-people exchange between the United States and Cuba where the Orioles would play the Cuban National team in international competition. Later, Angelos led the project to build bridges between Greece and the United States and to expand baseball internationally through the development of a team that could represent Greece in the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Greece.

Since 2012, Angelos has been more involved in the business operations of the Orioles. That season, he had the privilege of representing the club in the unveiling of the series of bronze sculptures commissioned and dedicated to the six Orioles who are members of the National Baseball Hall of Fame as part of the Orioles Legends Celebration Series, by delivering the six ceremonial addresses on behalf of the club.

Angelos is an attorney at the Law Offices of Peter Angelos, PC, and has practiced law for 16 years after graduating from the Johns Hopkins University in 1992 and the Saint Thomas University Law School in 1995. He is a member of the Maryland State Bar Association and the Maryland Association for Justice and is admitted to practice in the United States District Court for the District of Maryland and the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.



LOU KOUSOURIS

VICE PRESIDENT/SPECIAL LIAISON TO THE CHAIRMAN

Now in his 25th season with the team, Lou Kousouris joined the Orioles in February of 1994 and was promoted to Vice President prior to the 1999 season. Kousouris has worked for Peter Angelos since 1981 in the real estate and hospitality industries.

After attending the Boys Latin School, Kousouris received a bachelor's degree in Sociology from C.W. Post College in Greenvale, N.Y., where he played football and lacrosse. After graduation, he coached both of these sports on the high school and college levels. In addition, Kousouris coached youth lacrosse in Baltimore for more than 10 years.

Kousouris is very active in the community. He purchased Camp Puh'tok, a 501(c)(3) summer camp for children ages 6-16, in Monkton, Md. He also has served as chairman of The Salvation Army's Advisory Board for the Baltimore Area Command and has helped raise more than $4 million for Camp Puh'tok. In 2005, he was honored with The Salvation Army's "Others" award, joining a select few individuals nationally in recognition of his service and fundraising support to the organization.

In November of 1998, Kousouris was instrumental in coordinating the 1958 Baltimore Colts Anniversary Banquet. Proceeds from the event benefited the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) research. He continues to assist the American Cancer Society, the Maryland Food Bank, and numerous local nonprofit organizations and schools in their fundraising efforts.

A Baltimore native, Kousouris resides in Sparks, Md. with his wife, Pat. They have two children: Louis III, a West Point graduate and Army veteran who lives in Baltimore and works for a commercial real estate company; and Alexi, a graduate of the University of Georgia and of the University of Baltimore School of Law, who serves as the Director of Camp Puh'tok.

NEIL ALOISE

VICE PRESIDENT, TICKET SALES, SERVICE & OPERATIONS

Neil Aloise, who enters his 20th season with the Orioles and his sixth since being named Vice President, oversees all of the operational and customer service aspects of the ballpark experience, including ticketing, ballpark operations, and food services.

Aloise began his career with the Orioles in 1998 as a part-time Fan Services Representative. He was promoted to Box Office Manager in 2001, Assistant Director of Ticketing in 2005, and Director of Sales and Fan Services in 2008.

A native of Bel Air, Md. and a graduate of Towson University, Aloise resides in Towson, Md. with his wife, Nora.

GREG BADER

VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS & MARKETING

A member of the Orioles' organization for 24 seasons, Greg Bader was named the club's Vice President of Communications and Marketing in November of 2012. In his current role, Bader oversees the club's marketing, advertising, public relations, broadcasting, publishing, productions, and community relations efforts.

Bader began his Orioles career in 1994, working seasonally in public relations, ticketing, and Orioles productions. He joined the club full-time in 1998 as a premium sales representative and serving as an assistant to club ownership on special projects, including VIP ticketing and the launch of the Exclusively Orioles premium ticket program.

Bader was named Communications Director in January of 2007, overseeing the team's public relations, advertising, broadcasting, and publishing departments. Since that time, Bader assisted in three radio flagship transitions and two brand identity transformations – the return of "Baltimore" to the team's road jerseys in 2009, and the return of a new cartoon bird in 2012.

A native of Baltimore, Bader graduated from the Gilman School and Trinity College (Hartford, Conn.) with a degree in political science. He also serves on the Baltimore Convention and Tourism Board of Directors. Bader resides in Baltimore with his husband, John.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

MARCO GENTILE

VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS

Marco Gentile was named Vice President of Corporate Partnerships in January of 2014. In his role, Gentile oversees the Corporate Partnerships department, which includes sponsorship advertising sales, and partnership marketing. His team develops strategic, targeted, and customized marketing solutions for new and returning corporate partners to enhance the relationship between the business community and the ballclub.

Gentile rejoined the Orioles after spending more than six years with the Washington Capitals, where he most recently served as Senior Director of Corporate Sponsorship Sales. In addition to the Capitals, Gentile negotiated corporate partnerships for the entire Monumental Sports & Entertainment family, including the Wizards, Mystics, and the Verizon Center in Washington, D.C.

A Baltimore native, Gentile spent the first decade of his career with the Orioles, starting as an intern in the club's fan services and promotions departments before moving into a full-time role in Corporate Sales.

Gentile received his bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration from Loyola University Maryland. He has been an adjunct professor of Sports Marketing at his alma mater since 2007. Gentile and his wife, Gisele, reside in Crownsville, Md.

MICHAEL D. HOPPES

VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE

Michael Hoppes joined the Orioles in 1986 as a staff accountant. Now in his 31st year with the club, Hoppes was named Vice President of Finance in November of 2012 after serving as Director of Finance since 2006. He oversees the team's finance and accounting functions.

Before joining the Orioles, Hoppes worked for two years as a staff auditor with Arthur Andersen LLP. He received his CPA certification in 1987.

A graduate of Seneca Valley High School in Germantown, Md., where he was a state champion in the two-mile run, Hoppes also ran track and cross-country at the University of Delaware, where he graduated cum laude in accounting.

Hoppes resides in Baldwin, Md. with his wife, Dana. They have two children: Drew, a graduate of Gettysburg College who works as a data scientist in Bethesda, Md., and Kara, who is currently pursuing a Master's degree at the University of Wyoming. Hoppes spent several years in leadership roles with the Carroll Manor Recreation Programs.

SCOTT LEWIS

VICE PRESIDENT, STRATEGY, ANALYTICS & DEVELOPMENT

Scott Lewis joined the Orioles as Vice President, Strategy, Analytics & Development prior to the 2018 season.

Most recently, Lewis served as Vice President of Marketing with D.C. United, where he oversaw analytics, customer relationship management, and data warehousing for three years. Prior to that, Lewis worked for the Washington Nationals in Consumer Marketing and Business Analytics for six seasons (2009-2015).

Lewis has served as an Adjunct Professor at George Washington University in Washington, D.C. since 2012 and taught in Georgetown University's (Washington, D.C.) Graduate Sports Information Management program from 2010-2017.

Lewis earned his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from University of California – Los Angeles, and his MBA from Duke University (N.C.). He resides in Annapolis, Md. with his wife, Hunter, and their children, Will and May.

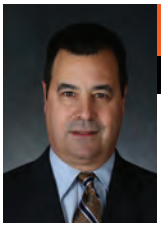
DAVID ROVINE

VICE PRESIDENT, ORIOLES-SARASOTA

David Rovine joined the Orioles as Vice President of Orioles-Sarasota in February of 2013 to oversee the club's Sarasota business affairs and community development. Rovine leads the Orioles' year-round engagement with the Sarasota community through OriolesREACH and Sarasota 365, which includes hosting youth activities, participating in charitable causes, and partnering in efforts to boost the local economy. He currently serves on the Boards of the Greater Sarasota Chamber of Commerce and Visit Sarasota County (VSC), and is a member of the VSC Sports Committee. In 2013, Rovine introduced the "Arts in the Ballpark" series of family-friendly arts and entertainment events at Ed Smith Stadium, in association with local arts organizations. Most recently, he helped to launch the Orioles Health & Fitness Challenge, which encourages Sarasota Middle School students to develop healthy lifestyles.

A native of Baltimore and graduate of Towson University, Rovine has extensive experience in marketing and venue management. He spent seven years with SMG Entertainment, a worldwide entertainment and convention venue management company. In his roles as General Manager of the Mahaffey Theater in St. Petersburg and the Genesee Theatre in Waukegan, Ill., Rovine was responsible for day-to-day operations, marketing, and talent booking for these historic venues. Rovine's experience also includes nearly nine years as Director of Marketing at Gulfstream Park in Hallandale Beach, where he oversaw advertising and promotion and was responsible for attracting and coordinating concerts and other non-racing events.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES



DAN DUQUETTE

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

A veteran of nearly three decades in baseball operations at the Major League level, including 16 seasons as General Manager or Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations with the Montreal Expos, Boston Red Sox, and Orioles, Dan Duquette has a proven track record of utilizing strong scouting and player development to construct contending franchises.

Since he joined the Orioles six seasons ago in November of 2011, the club has won more home games than any team in the American League, posted five straight .500-or-better seasons (2012-16), and advanced to the postseason three times. Since 2012, the Orioles lead the majors with 1,339 home runs and have also committed the fewest number of errors. Throughout that time, Duquette has improved the club's player development operations and directed additional resources into analytics and video assets in an effort to maintain a consistently competitive team at the Major League level.

After finishing 81-81 (.500) in 2015, the 2016 Orioles completed the regular season with a record of 89-73 (.549) and finished tied with the Toronto Blue Jays for second place in the American League East division. The Wild Card Game against Toronto marked the Orioles second postseason appearance in three years. The 2016 season also marked the fourth consecutive season that the Major League leader in home runs was an Oriole (Chris Davis in 2013, Nelson Cruz in 2014, Chris Davis in 2015, and Mark Trumbo in 2016).

In 2014, the Orioles posted the club's third consecutive winning season under Duquette's leadership, including the second-best record in the Major Leagues at 96-66, and won the American League East division title for the first time since 1997. After sweeping the Detroit Tigers in the American League Division Series, 3-0, the Orioles advanced to the American League Championship Series for the first time since 1997 where they fell to the Kansas City Royals in four games. Following the 2014 season, Duquette became the first Oriole to be recognized with Baseball America's Executive of the Year honor, as the Orioles became the third organization to be awarded both Baseball America's Executive of the Year and Manager of the Year accolades after Buck Showalter was named the latter just days later. Following the 2014 season, he was also named MLB Executive of the Year by the Boston chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. He had previously won the award in 1995. He also joined Harry Dalton, Roland Hemond, and Hank Peters as the fourth Orioles executive to be recognized as MLB Executive of the Year by The Sporting News.

In 2013, the Orioles went 85-77 and remained in postseason contention until the season's final week. The year included Duquette's 1,000th career victory in a general manager role with a Major League team. In 2012, the Orioles made their first playoff appearance since 1997, winning 93 games and the American League Wild Card, and pushing the AL Division Series to five games.

Duquette's eight seasons as Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Red Sox from 1994 through 2001 included three playoff teams (1995, 1998, and 1999), and his acquisitions helped lay the groundwork for the club's 93 wins in 2002 and their first World Series championship in 86 years in 2004. The club made the postseason in back-to-back years in 1998 and 1999, the first time in 80 seasons the franchise had accomplished the feat. Numerous key contributors on the 2004 team were acquired during Duquette's tenure. Under his leadership, Boston compiled a .544 winning percentage (695-582).

Duquette also showed a commitment to expanding Boston's reach in the international market, finishing the 2001 season with 12 of the players on the club's 40-man roster born outside the United States. At Boston's 2002 Spring Training camp, players from 10 different countries were represented.

The Red Sox minor league system was shaped into a feeder system for the Major League club under Duquette's watch, with homegrown players including Nomar Garciaparra, Shea Hillenbrand, Casey Fossum, and Trot Nixon making contributions to the team. Future Major League players Kevin Youkilis, David Eckstein, Hanley Ramirez, and Freddy Sanchez were also drafted or signed during Duquette's tenure. The talent in the Red Sox minor league system also enabled Duquette to trade for Pedro Martinez, and for Boston to later acquire Curt Schilling and Josh Beckett. Red Sox minor league affiliates finished with an overall record over .500 in five of Duquette's last six seasons with the organization.

Prior to joining the Red Sox, Duquette spent six seasons with the Montreal Expos, joining the club as Director of Player Development in October of 1987 and being promoted to Assistant General Manager in 1990, followed by a two-year stint as Vice President and General Manager from 1992-93. At the time of his promotion, he was the youngest general manager in the Major Leagues. During his six years with Montreal, Duquette was instrumental in assembling Expos teams that contended from 1992-94, and acquiring Ken Hill, Mel Rojas, Larry Walker, John Wetteland, Marquis Grissom, Jeff Shaw, and Pedro Martinez. He also signed stars Vladimir Guerrero, Jose Vidro, and Javier Vazquez, and named Felipe Alou the first manager from the Dominican Republic in Major League history in 1992.

Despite one of the lowest payrolls in baseball, Montreal compiled a 255-183 record (.582 winning percentage) from 1992-94, the best record in baseball over the span. The Expos had baseball's best record in the strike-shortened 1994 season (74-40), a team Duquette constructed. In 1992, Duquette was named The Sporting News Major League Executive of the Year and the UPI National League Executive of the Year, and the Expos were honored as the Topps Major League Organization of the Year in 1993.

Duquette began his career in baseball with the Milwaukee Brewers in 1981, working in the scouting department under former Orioles general manager Harry Dalton. He spent a total of seven years in scouting and player development with the Brewers from 1981-87, the last two as Scouting Coordinator.

In 2003, Duquette founded and built the Dan Duquette Sports Academy, a Massachusetts-based baseball, softball, and soccer camp and tournament facility for youth. In 2004, he purchased the Pittsfield Dukes of the New England Collegiate Baseball League and in 2007, Duquette became a founding member and Director of Player Development of the Israel Baseball League.

A native of Dalton, Mass., Duquette, 59, earned a bachelor's degree in English from Amherst College and played on the school's baseball and football teams. He was named All-New England in football as a linebacker at Amherst. Duquette resides with his wife, Amy, daughters, Kylie and Katie, and sons, Brodie and Colt. His son, Daniel, and his wife, Erin, live in Simsbury, Conn. and Daniel works as a producer for ESPN. His daughter, Denise, resides in Pinole, Calif. His son, Dana, is entering his fourth year as an area scout for the Orioles.

BRADY ANDERSON

VICE PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Brady Anderson was named Vice President of Baseball Operations in February of 2013. In his role, he collaborates with Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations Dan Duquette and manager Buck Showalter on player development and roster management while overseeing strength and conditioning training and nutrition for the club. He began consulting with the Orioles on hitting instruction and strength and conditioning training in 2010 before joining the team as Special Assistant to the Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations in 2012.

A veteran of 15 Major League seasons, 14 with Baltimore, Anderson holds the Orioles' all-time stolen bases record (307) and ranks among the top 10 in Orioles career batting leaders in 12 categories. He is one of two players in Major League history with both a 50 home run season (50, 1996) and a 50 stolen base season (53, 1992). Anderson's six career postseason home runs are tied for second in club history (with Eddie Murray and Boog Powell), trailing only Frank Robinson's nine postseason homers. He was inducted into the Orioles Hall of Fame in 2004 and the Maryland State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2016.

Acquired by the Orioles along with Curt Schilling during the 1988 season from Boston in exchange for Mike Boddicker, Anderson was named to the American League All-Star team three times, in 1992, 1996, and 1997, starting the last two seasons.

Anderson resides in Los Angeles in the offseason with his daughter, Brianna.

LEE THOMAS

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Lee Thomas joined the Orioles in December of 2011, bringing over five decades of experience in professional baseball to his role, highlighted by Executive of the Year honors in 1993 after leading the Philadelphia Phillies to the World Series as general manager.

Thomas served as general manager of the Phillies from June 1988-97 but spent the majority of his career with the St. Louis Cardinals. He worked for the Cardinals in several capacities over 18 years from 1970-88, ending with eight years as Director of Player Development. Over that span, the Cardinals went to the World Series three times – in 1982, 1985, and 1987.

Thomas played eight seasons in Major League Baseball from 1961-68 with the New York Yankees, California Angels (currently the Los Angeles Angels), Boston Red Sox, Atlanta Braves, Chicago Cubs, and Houston Astros. An outfielder and first baseman, Thomas was named to the American League All-Star team in 1962.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Thomas worked as a professional scout for the Milwaukee Brewers from 2004-06. Previously, he worked for six seasons as Special Assistant to the General Manager and Assistant General Manager for the Red Sox, working closely with Dan Duquette the majority of those years.

Thomas and his wife, Susan, reside in Chesterfield, Mo.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

JOE McILVAINE

SENIOR ADVISOR, PLAYER PERSONNEL

Joe McIlvaine enters his third season with the Orioles as Senior Advisor of Player Personnel. He advises the executive team at the Major League level and on scouting and the First-Year Player Draft.

McIlvaine was the New York Mets Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations from July 1993 through July 1997. He was the Executive Vice President, Baseball Operations and General Manager of the San Diego Padres from October 1990 until moving to the Mets in 1993. Prior to being hired by the Padres, McIlvaine spent a decade (1980-90) with the Mets. He served as Director of Scouting, Assistant Vice President, Director of Player Personnel and later Vice President, Baseball Operations. From 1984-90, the Mets finished either first or second, won two NL East titles, and won the 1986 World Series.

McIlvaine most recently served as Special Assistant to the General Manager for the Seattle Mariners for four seasons. He spent the previous 13 seasons with the Minnesota Twins (1998-2011), holding a Special Assistant to the General Manager title since 1998.

McIlvaine began his career as a territorial scout for Baltimore from 1974-76. From 1977-78, he scouted the East Coast, South, and Latin America for the California Angels, and from 1979-80, he worked with Milwaukee. McIlvaine graduated with a degree in philosophy and a minor in classics, from St. Charles Seminary in Philadelphia. He played five seasons (1969-73) in the Detroit Tigers minor league system as a right-handed pitcher.

McIlvaine and his wife, Martha, have four children: Tim is an Assistant Scouting Director for the Milwaukee Brewers; Susan is a resident in internal medicine at Beth Israel Hospital in Boston; Patrick is a commodities trader in Stamford, Conn.; and Mary is currently working for an advertising firm in Melbourne, Australia.

TRIPP NORTON

DIRECTOR, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Entering his 21st year as a member of the Orioles baseball operations staff, Norton assists in all facets of baseball operations, with particular focus on Major League player contract negotiations, salary arbitration, and overseeing all budgeting.

Norton was named the club's Director of Baseball Operations in August of 2014 after previously serving as the club's Director of Baseball Administration since January of 2012. From 2000-12, he served as the Assistant Director of Player Development. He began with the Orioles in March of 1998 as Player Development Administrator.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Norton worked for the Detroit Tigers organization as their Assistant General Manager for Florida Operations from August 1994 to March 1998 and worked as an Operations Assistant for the Florida Marlins the two years prior. Norton began his baseball career as an intern with the Lakeland Tigers in 1992.

A graduate of Florida Southern College and Hialeah-Miami Lakes High School, Norton grew up in Miami Lakes, Fla. He and his wife, Angel, reside in Phoenix, Md., with their son, Ty.

PATRICK Di GREGORY

DIRECTOR, PROFESSIONAL SCOUTING & SPECIAL PROJECTS

Patrick Di Gregory enters his sixth season with the Orioles and his third as Director of Professional Scouting & Special Projects. In his role, he oversees professional scouting operations (Major League, minor leagues, and independent leagues). He also completes special baseball operations projects in the areas of scouting, player development, analytics, and player acquisitions. Di Gregory served as Coordinator of Baseball Operations for parts of three seasons (2014-16) and joined the organization's baseball operations department in 2013.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Di Gregory interned for the Pittsburgh Pirates during the 2012 season. He holds a Master of Business Administration (MBA) and Master of Science in Sport Management from the University of Massachusetts Amherst as well as a Master of Public Policy and bachelor's degree in Economics from the University of Virginia. Before working in professional baseball, Di Gregory worked in management consulting for PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP in Washington, D.C.

A native of Falls Church, Va., Di Gregory resides in Baltimore with his wife, Anna, and son, Lincoln.

KENT QUALLS

DIRECTOR, MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS

Qualls enters his sixth year as Director of Minor League Operations with the Orioles. Qualls oversees the administration of the Orioles Player Development department, minor league affiliate relationships, Dominican Academy, and Winter Ball assignments. His responsibilities also include handling Major League and Minor League contracts and negotiations, player transactions, salary arbitration, and rules compliance.

Qualls has over 20 years of experience in baseball operations at the Major League level. He spent eight years with the Boston Red Sox from 1995-2002, working as Director of Player Development for four years (1998-2001) and Director of Baseball Operations for one year (2002). He spent the previous eight seasons (1987-94) with the Montreal Expos, rising to Director of Minor League Operations for the organization.

Qualls also worked for 10 years as Director of the Dan Duquette Sports Academy in Hinsdale, Mass.

A graduate of the University of Kentucky, Qualls and his wife, Irene, have two children – Kyle and Chloe – and reside in Woodbine, Md.

BRIAN GRAHAM

DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Graham begins his 37th year in professional baseball, his 11th with the Baltimore Orioles, and his sixth as Director of Player Development. In this role, Graham oversees the instruction and development process for the Orioles' minor league system.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Graham spent six seasons as the Senior Director of Player Development for the Pittsburgh Pirates. During his tenure, the Pirates' minor league system was recognized as the best Player Development System in baseball, earning the 2002 Topps Baseball "Organization of the Year" and totaling 54 homegrown players who reached the Major League level. Graham also served as the interim General Manager for the Pittsburgh Pirates in 2007.

Before joining the Pirates, he was a Major League coach with the American League Central Division Champion Cleveland Indians (1998-99) and with the Orioles (2000). Graham spent the 2001 season as the Field Coordinator for the Florida Marlins.

As a minor league manager in the Cleveland Indians organization, Graham managed eight consecutive playoff teams, compiled a 704-491 (.589) record, and finished above .500 for nine consecutive years. He was named the Carolina League's Manager of the Year in 1991, the "Best Managerial Prospect" by Eastern League Managers/Baseball America magazine in 1993, and Minor League Manager of the Year by USA Today's Baseball Weekly in 1996. He also managed in the Dominican Republic Winter League for Aguilas Cibaenas (1991) and was a coach (1993) and a manager (1994) in the Arizona Fall League.

Originally selected by the Oakland Athletics in the fourth round of the 1982 First-Year Player Draft, the former middle infielder played five seasons in the minor leagues with Oakland, Milwaukee, Detroit, and Cleveland.

Graham played both football and baseball at UCLA and was a member of the 1978 Fiesta Bowl team. He was a first-team, all PAC-10 infielder in 1982, and finished his collegiate career as UCLA's all-time leader in hits, stolen bases, and runs scored. Graham was elected to the UCLA Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996, inducted into the Buffalo Bisons Hall of Fame in 2008, and inducted into the Granite Hills High School Hall of Fame in 2009.

Graham's contributions to minor league baseball were recognized in December of 2013 when he was selected as the winner of the annual Sheldon "Chief" Bender Award, presented by Minor League Baseball to an individual with distinguished service who has been instrumental in player development.

Born April 9, 1960 in San Diego, Graham graduated from Granite Hills High School in 1978 and attended UCLA for four years before receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in Behavioral Science from National University in San Diego. Graham resides in Cranberry Township, Pa., with his wife Karen and three children; son Jack and daughters Kelsey and Kendall. Jack was drafted by the Orioles in the 38th round of the 2015 First-Year Player Draft and is currently the field coach for Class A-Advanced Frederick.

GARY RAJSICH

DIRECTOR, SCOUTING

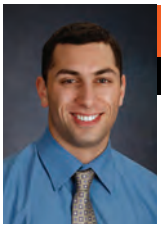
Gary Rajsich enters his seventh season as Director of Scouting, having joined the Orioles in November of 2011 from the Toronto Blue Jays, where he spent two seasons as the club's professional crosschecker.

Rajsich, 63, began his scouting career in 1990 with the Major League Scouting Bureau. He joined the Boston Red Sox in 1994, serving in both the amateur and professional departments through 2006. In his time with Boston, Rajsich drafted and signed pitcher Jon Lester and was instrumental in acquiring pitcher Derek Lowe and catcher Jason Varitek from the Seattle Mariners in exchange for pitcher Heathcliff Slocumb at the non-waiver trade deadline in 1997. From Boston, Rajsich joined the Texas Rangers as a professional scout, where he served from 2006-09 before being hired by the Blue Jays as professional crosschecker in the fall of 2009.

Drafted by the Houston Astros in the 11th round of the 1976 First-Year Player Draft out of Arizona State University, Rajsich played for four years in the Major Leagues (1982-85). The first baseman and right fielder made his Major League debut for the New York Mets in 1982. During his time in the Mets' minor league system, Rajsich played for the Tidewater Tides, now the Orioles' Triple-A affiliate Norfolk Tides. He is the Tides franchise leader in home runs (52) and ranks second in Norfolk history with a .548 slugging percentage.

Rajsich also played for the St. Louis Cardinals (1984) and San Francisco Giants (1985), and finished his playing career with the Chunichi Dragons of the Japan Central League (1986-88).

Rajsich and his wife, Linda, have been married for over 40 years and have two sons – Lou and Lee.



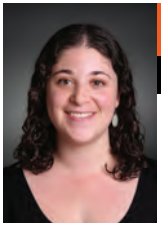
MIKE SNYDER

DIRECTOR, PACIFIC RIM OPERATIONS & BASEBALL DEVELOPMENT

Mike Snyder enters his 10th year with the Orioles and his fourth as Director of Pacific Rim Operations & Baseball Development. In this role, he oversees the club's player procurement efforts in Asia and Australia and contributes to various strategic, personnel, and hiring decisions in baseball operations and professional scouting. Snyder previously served as Assistant Director of Player Personnel (2013-14), Assistant Director of Scouting and Player Development (2012), Baseball Operations Assistant and International Scout (2010-11), and baseball operations Intern (2009), with involvement in scouting, player development, analytics, contracts, negotiation, rules compliance, and arbitration.

Snyder graduated from Princeton University in 2008 with a bachelor's degree in economics and is currently working toward a master's degree in applied and computational mathematics from Johns Hopkins University.

A native of Milton, Mass., Snyder resides in Baltimore with his wife, Lindsay.



SARAH GELLES

DIRECTOR, BASEBALL ANALYTICS & MAJOR LEAGUE CONTRACTS

Sarah Gelles begins her eighth season with the Orioles and her third as Director of Analytics & Major League Contracts. In this role, Gelles oversees the club's Analytics department, leads development of internal baseball operations systems, handles Major League roster management and rules compliance, and assists with player acquisitions and other aspects of baseball operations.

Gelles, 29, began her career with the Orioles as a baseball operations intern in 2011 and was appointed Coordinator of Baseball Analytics in 2012. She was promoted to Director of Baseball Analytics in 2014. Before arriving at the Orioles, Gelles worked for the Philadelphia Phillies, Pittsburgh Pirates, and Major League Baseball's Labor Relations Department.

ORIOLES REACH

ORIOLESREACH™

The Baltimore Orioles have prioritized community involvement through a variety of programs and initiatives throughout Birdland for more than 60 years. With the goal of enriching the lives of fans in the community, the Orioles have supported many civic and charitable organizations in the Mid-Atlantic region, Sarasota, Fla., and abroad. Since the ownership group led by Peter Angelos purchased the team, the Orioles have donated more than $12 million to support various organizations in the Orioles community.

Launched in 2007 under Mr. Angelos' direction, OriolesREACH centralized the club's community relations initiatives in an effort to better reach those who are most in need.

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

LUNGEVITY FOUNDATION

For the fourth consecutive year, the Orioles hosted the LUNGevity Foundation's Breathe Deep Baltimore, a 5K walk to raise funds and awareness for lung cancer in memory of late Orioles Public Relations Director Monica Pence Barlow, who passed away in 2014 after a courageous fight with lung cancer. This year's event raised more than $113,000 for the foundation.

BOYS & GIRLS CLUBS OF METROPOLITAN BALTIMORE

During the 2017 season, The Orioles Charitable Foundation and center fielder Adam Jones, along with his wife, Audie, made a $75,000 donation to the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metropolitan Baltimore to help renovate the gymnasium and fund the Youth of the Year Scholarship Awards. The Jones' also participated in the panel to select the scholarship recipients.

KIDSPEACE

The Orioles joined manager Buck Showalter and his wife, Angela, and KidsPeace to host the annual Trick-or-Trot 5K/1-Mile Walk, a Halloween-themed race at Oriole Park to benefit children in foster care. The race drew 1,300 participants and raised $119,000 for KidsPeace, a nonprofit organization that provides mental and behavioral health care for disadvantaged, challenged, and vulnerable youth in Maryland.

CHRIS DAVIS PARTNERS WITH UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Prior to the 2017 season, Chris Davis and his wife, Jill, formed a new partnership with University of Maryland Children's Hospital (UMCH), to help raise awareness for childhood illnesses as ambassadors for the hospital. In July, the Davis family hosted "Crush's Homers for Hearts," a charity Home Run Derby at the ballpark. The event raised nearly $100,000 to benefit the Pediatric Heart Program of UMCH and the University of Maryland School of Medicine Center. Chris Davis personally donated $1,000 for each of his home runs during the 2017 season, totaling $26,000.

SHANNON'S FUND

Each season, the Orioles and OriolesREACH host a fundraising event at Oriole Park to benefit Shannon's Fund, an endowment at the University of Maryland Medical Center to provide financial support to hospital patients and their families named in memory of former Orioles community relations director, Shannon Obaker. Through fundraising efforts, the Orioles helped raise more than $22,000 last season.

BARCS

In 2017, the Orioles produced the ninth annual Orioles Pet Calendar, sponsored by Pet+E.R., with proceeds benefiting BARCS, a nonprofit shelter that accepts and cares for all animals in need. The 16-month calendar features photos of Orioles with their pets as well as various BARCS animals at locations around Oriole Park. More than $64,500 was raised for BARCS through sales of the 2017-18 pet calendar (as of December 2017).

Kevin Gausman and his wife, Taylor, also joined members of the Orioles on Deck Employee Volunteer Program presented by Bank of America to launch "Tails with Tales," a new collaboration between the Orioles and BARCS. The project paired adoptable animals with school children in an effort to provide companionship to animals while promoting reading comprehension and vocabulary development among youth. Books were supplied by the Gausmans.

ORIOLES REACH FOOD & FUNDS DRIVE

Each year, the Orioles, along with the Orioles Wives, Oriole Advocates, Von Paris Moving and Storage, and the Maryland Food Bank, host the annual OriolesREACH Food & Funds Drive, presented by MASN, Pompeian Brands, and WJZ-TV, at Oriole Park. Representatives from these groups help collect non-perishable food items and monetary donations from fans at every entrance of the ballpark. The 2017 Food & Funds Drive raised more than $32,000 and collected nearly 4,000 pounds of food for Maryland families. United Concordia Dental also presented a check for $10,000 to the Maryland Food Bank during a pregame ceremony in September. These monetary donations supported the Maryland Food Bank's Pack to Give Back event, a state-wide initiative focused on providing meals to families in need for the holidays.

MLB INITIATIVES

The Orioles partner with Major League Baseball to support worthy causes each year, in conjunction with Jackie Robinson Day, Mother's Day, Memorial Day, Play Ball Weekend, Father's Day, Independence Day, and Roberto Clemente Day. The Orioles also recognized certain months during the season to bring awareness to important causes such as Autism Awareness (April), and Childhood Cancer Awareness Month and Hispanic Awareness Month (both September).

GAME-USED MEMORABILIA AND ONLINE AUCTIONS

Through various online auctions of special anniversary jerseys and other game-used items, the Orioles raised more than $327,000 last season for the Orioles Charitable Foundation and other nonprofits.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

SERVICE

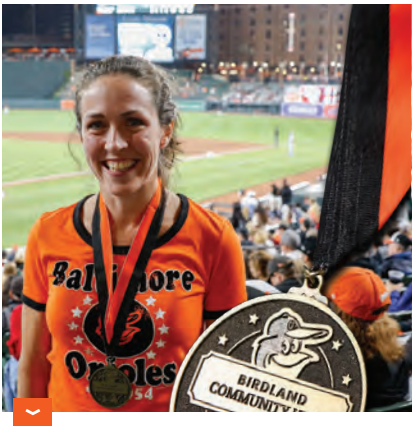
ORIOLES ON DECK EMPLOYEE VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

Each year, members of the Orioles front office staff volunteer with local organizations in the area to help improve the community through the Orioles On Deck Employee Volunteer Program presented by Bank of America. In 2017, Orioles employees volunteered at the Maryland Food Bank, the Franciscan Center Inc., the Boys & Girls Club of Metropolitan Baltimore, BARCS, The Ronald McDonald House and more.

USO OF METROPOLITAN WASHINGTON-BALTIMORE

Darren and Elizabeth O'Day, along with the Orioles Charitable Foundation, continued their partnership with USO of Metropolitan Washington-Baltimore, presenting a check for more than $35,000 from various fundraising efforts throughout the season, to support USO programs for deployed troops, military families, wounded, ill, and injured troops and their caregivers, and families of the fallen.

Orioles players also visited the Joint Base Myer-Henderson Hall USO Honor Guard Lounge in Arlington, Va. in May, to meet service members from honor guard units, sign autographs, and take photos.



BIRDLAND COMMUNITY HEROES

In its second year, the Birdland Community Heroes program honored 41 different heroes at every weekend home game and three Sunday Spring Training games at Ed Smith Stadium. The community heroes were recognized for their selfless contributions in fields that care for, serve, teach, protect, and improve the lives of those in need, both locally and globally. For a complete list of the 2017 heroes, or to nominate someone who inspires others, visit orioles.com/heroes.

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES' "25,000 MEAL CHALLENGE"

The Orioles and CRS Helping Hands continued their partnership in the fight against hunger by exceeding their goal of 25,000 meals, and sending 30,000 meals to the hungry women, men, and children of Burkina Faso, West Africa. Through the program, for every 50 cents raised, CRS Helping Hands provided one meal to under-fed global neighbors and funded projects to help families support themselves. Orioles Hall of Famer and MASN broadcaster Mike Bordick emceed the event, and Orioles outfielder Trey Mancini visited the event to thank volunteers.

YOUTH BASEBALL

PLAY BALL WEEKEND

In support of Play Ball Weekend in June, the Orioles hosted a variety of clinics, events, and ceremonies at Oriole Park and in the community to encourage youth to be active and Play Ball.

YOUTH CLINICS

Each season, the Orioles and OriolesREACH host and participate in numerous youth baseball and softball clinics throughout the Maryland region. Last season, Brad Brach and Darren O'Day taught baseball fundamentals such as baserunning, fielding, hitting, and throwing to children of servicemen and women at the Fort George G. Meade U.S. Army base. The Orioles also partnered with Baltimore City's Department of Recreation & Parks to conduct their annual Baltimore City clinic, with center fielder Adam Jones and coaches Wayne Kirby and Jett Ruiz on hand to teach baseball and softball fundamentals to more than 300 Baltimore City youths.

The Orioles Advocates Challenger Baseball program held their annual Fantasy Camp Clinic for Challenger Athletes when over 60 athletes with physical and developmental challenges had the opportunity to learn baseball skills from Brad Brach and former Orioles players Al Bumbry and Bill Swaggerty.

"HAVE A CATCH" CAMPAIGN

Expanding upon Major League Baseball's successful PlayBall campaign, the Orioles launched the 'Have A Catch' campaign, a new youth baseball program designed to encourage fans of all ages to go outside and enjoy a game of catch. The Orioles hosted a week-long series of events with Orioles players, alumni, the Oriole bird, and Orioles staff and personnel having a catch with children from local youth organizations at events across Baltimore.

RBI BASEBALL

A mainstay since its inception in 1989, Baltimore Orioles RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities) created a partnership with Baltimore City Recreation and Parks to help Baltimore youth develop baseball and softball skills in a fun and safe environment. In 2017, the program supported 42 teams and over 600 youth participants. Aspects of RBI baseball and softball included a clinic for all team coaches, a regional tournament to compete against other RBI programs, and the Adam Jones O'mazing Orioles RBI Player Awards for those that go above and beyond both on and off the field.

BALLPARK & COMMUNITY EVENTS

KIDS RUN THE BASES

Following Sunday home games at Oriole Park, all fans ages 4-14 can run the bases like their favorite Orioles as part of Kids Run the Bases, presented by Weis Markets.

COMMUNITY BOOTH

During each home game, the Orioles provide a community booth for local, nonprofit organizations to distribute information, sell raffle tickets, register participants, and raise awareness for Orioles fans. Nearly 60 different organizations participated in the Community Booth Program in 2017.

MILITARY APPRECIATION PROGRAM

As part of the Orioles Military Appreciation Program, presented by GEICO, the Orioles and OriolesREACH donated a catered private suite at each Sunday home game at Oriole Park to servicemen and women. Last season, the Orioles invited members of Wounded Warrior Project, 742nd Military Battalion, Operation Homefront, Fort Meade Alliance, Luke's Wings, Catch a Lift, Got Your 6, Field of Dreams, USO of Metropolitan Washington-Baltimore, Mission Continues, Yellow Ribbon Fund, National Military Family Association, and Team Red, White and Blue to Oriole Park as part of the program.

ORIOLES REACH HOLIDAY PARTY

Last year, Orioles teammates Tim Beckham, Trey Mancini, and Mike Wright, Jr., along with former Orioles, hosted 80 students from John Ruhrah Elementary/Middle School for the 39th annual OriolesREACH Holiday Party for Kids at Dave & Busters in the Arundel Mills Mall. Players served lunch, played games, signed autographs, and handed out gifts to every child.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

YOUTH BASEBALL DAYS AT THE BALLPARK

Nearly 23,000 youth baseball and softball players attended two Youth Baseball Days at Oriole Park in 2017 presented by Ripken Baseball. Teams participated in a pregame parade around the warning track and were greeted by Orioles players as they walked by the dugout.

The park also hosted the Brooks Robinson High School All-Star game, MLB's Pitch, Hit & Run Team championship, and honored the Baltimore City High School baseball and softball champions.

ORIOLES REACH GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE PROGRAM

Each season, the Orioles host more than 10,000 underprivileged youth as a part of the OriolesREACH Gameday Experience Program, in which participants receive a game ticket, concessions, an Orioles T-shirt and cap, as well as transportation to and from the game. More than 150,000 children have participated since the program's inception.

SARASOTA 365

Through Sarasota 365 and OriolesREACH, the Orioles demonstrate the ballclub's year-round engagement with the Greater Sarasota community. Sarasota 365 activities include: youth baseball clinics; the Birdland Golf Classic to benefit the Miracle League of Manasota; Mayors' Feed the Hungry Program Food Drive and Sorting Day; The Orioles Health and Fitness Challenge; All Faiths Food Drive; and much more. To develop a fun and safe community, the Orioles hosted events such as Howl-O-Ween Spooktacular, "Nashville's Music Row Comes to the Ballpark," and Sarasota Springfest.

NASHVILLE'S MUSIC ROW COMES TO THE BALLPARK

For the third consecutive year, the Orioles hosted "Nashville's Music Row Comes to the Ballpark" in partnership with the Greater Sarasota Area Chamber of Commerce, MASN, the Arts and Cultural Alliance of Sarasota County, and Visit Sarasota. The exclusive performance at Ed Smith Stadium showcased a cross-section of Nashville's vast songwriting community, hosted by Dreamlined Entertainment songwriter Margaret Valentine. Performers included singer/songwriters Lee Thomas Miller, The Warren Brothers, Tina Parol, and Jenae Cherry Brach, wife of Orioles pitcher Brad Brach. Contributions from the event benefited Girls, Inc. and the Music Health Alliance. The weekend also featured programs on music education, girls mentoring, and kids and family wellness.

ORIOLES HEALTH & FITNESS CHALLENGE

The Orioles and Sarasota County Schools continued the Orioles Health & Fitness Challenge, a comprehensive program to encourage healthy lifestyles among middle school-aged children in Sarasota County. Developed in 2016 in partnership with HealthFit Powered by Sarasota Memorial and Students Working Against Tobacco Sarasota County (SWATSC), the initiative teaches students about the importance of physical fitness, healthy eating, and tobacco-free living. Approximately 4,000 students participated in the challenge during 2017. Over 12,500 students have participated since the program began.

MANAGER & COACHES

BUCK SHOWALTER 26

MANAGER

FULL NAME: William Nathaniel "Buck" Showalter
BORN: May 23, 1956 2018 OPENING DAY AGE: 61
BIRTHPLACE/RESIDENCE: Born in DeFuniak Springs, FL...Resides in Dallas, TX and Baltimore, MD
CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2018
MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: Entering his 25th season as a manager in professional baseball, his 20th season as a manager in the Major Leagues, and his ninth as manager of the Orioles.

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER

A three-time Manager of the Year (1994, 2004, and 2014), Buck Showalter enters his ninth season with the Orioles. Showalter currently ranks third among active Major League managers and 23rd all-time with 1,504 career victories. In his managerial career, Showalter is 1,504-1,402 in 19 seasons as manager of the New York Yankees (313-268; 1992-1995), Arizona Diamondbacks (250-236; 1998-2000), Texas Rangers (319-329; 2003-06), and Orioles (622-569; 2010-present). He recorded his 1,000th career win on May 1, 2012 at New York-AL. Five years later, on September 5, 2017, Showalter notched the 1,500th victory of his managerial career as the Orioles defeated the Yankees in walk-off fashion.

Over the last six seasons, the Orioles have won the third-most games among all American League clubs (519), finishing with a record of .500 or better in five of the six years. The Orioles have also committed the fewest amount of errors (498) and slugged the most home runs (1,339) in Major League Baseball since the beginning of the 2012 season. In that span, the Orioles have posted the best home record in the AL, going 286-197 (.592) at Oriole Park.

On August 2, 2016, Showalter passed former Orioles manager Paul Richards for sole possession of second place on the Orioles all-time managerial wins list with 518 victories. Showalter trails only Baseball Hall of Famer and Orioles Legend Earl Weaver, who won 1,480 games as manager of the Orioles from 1969-1982 and 1985-1986, as well as four American League pennants and the 1970 World Series. Showalter was named as one of three finalists for the 2016 Baseball Writers' Association of America (BBWAA) Manager of the Year award after he led the Orioles to a Wild Card Game appearance against the Toronto Blue Jays.

Under Showalter's guidance, the 2014 Orioles went 96-66 and won the American League East division title for the first time since 1997, 12.0 games ahead of the New York Yankees. After sweeping the Detroit Tigers in the American League Division Series, 3-0, the Orioles made their first trip to the American League Championship Series since 1997 where they fell to the Kansas City Royals in four games. Following the season, Showalter earned his third BBWAA American League Manager of the Year award as well as his second Manager of the Year honor from Baseball America (also 2012).

In 2012, Showalter led the Orioles to a 24-game improvement (69 wins in 2011 to 93 in 2012) and the American League Division Series, where they fell to the New York Yankees, 3-2. The Orioles and Rangers reached the postseason in 2012 as the two Wild Card teams and met in a one-game playoff in Arlington to determine the Wild Card team for the Division Series round. The Orioles advanced with a 5-1 win. Following the season, Showalter was named The Sporting News' 2012 AL Manager of the Year and was awarded the C.I. Taylor Legacy Award by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum as the top AL manager.

Showalter was hired as the 19th manager in Orioles history on July 29, 2010, and took the helm on August 2, directing the club to a 34-23 finish, the second-best record in the American League over the last 57 games behind Minnesota's 35-22 finish. Showalter became the first manager since 1900 to take over a team on August 1 or later and win more games the rest of the way (34) than the club won before he took over (32). He is also the first manager in Major League history to win seven of his first eight games after taking over a team mid-season that was 20 or more games under .500.

Showalter spent the first 19 years of his professional baseball career in the New York Yankees organization, culminating in a four-year stint as the manager from 1992-95. In 1994, Showalter earned AL Manager of the Year honors, guiding New York to a 70-43 record before the strike ended the season prematurely. The next season, he led the Yankees to their first playoff berth in 14 years and managed the American League All-Star team. He was the youngest manager in the Major Leagues in each of his four seasons in New York.

In November 1995, Showalter joined the Arizona Diamondbacks, 28 months before the expansion franchise began play, and helped shape the new team's Major League operations. In 1999, he guided the Diamondbacks to a 100-win season and the NL West division title, an improvement of 35 victories over the previous season, the most in Major League history.

Showalter joined the Texas Rangers prior to the 2003 season and, in 2004, led the club to an 18-win improvement over the previous year, earning his second AL Manager of the Year honor from the BBWAA.

Showalter's managerial career began in 1985 with the Oneonta Yankees. He managed for five seasons in the Yankees minor league system, earning Eastern League Manager of the Year honors in 1989, prior to joining the Major League coaching staff in 1990.

BEHIND THE SCENES

BRIAN EBEL MBA, LAT, ATC

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Ebel enters his first season as the Orioles Head Athletic Trainer and his 34th year with the Orioles organization overall. Ebel was named the Orioles Head Athletic Trainer in January of 2018 following the retirement of long-time Head Athletic Trainer Richie Bancells at the conclusion of the 2017 season. He is just the fourth Head Athletic Trainer in Orioles history since the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1954.

Ebel began his career in 1985 at the age of 19 when he served as the Head Athletic Trainer for the rookie league Bluefield Orioles during summer breaks from college. He then moved up to Class-A Erie (1988), and Double-A Hagerstown (1989-91), and served as the Minor League Medical Coordinator (1992-1996) before being named the Orioles Assistant Athletic Trainer in October of 1996.

Ebel, 51, is a graduate of Eastern Kentucky University and holds an MBA from Johns Hopkins University. He is an active member of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS), and served on their Executive Board as the American League Assistant Athletic Trainer Representative from 1999-2005. He serves on Major League Baseball's steering committee for Electronic Medical Records, MLB's Concussion committee, and MLB's Medical Advisory Board (2003-2017).

Ebel received his 20-year service award as a Major League Athletic Trainer by PBATS in 2016. Following the 2011 season, PBATS named Ebel and Bancells the Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year. In 2007, he was the Athletic Trainer for the American League All-Star team in San Francisco. He was also selected as the Athletic Trainer for the Major League Baseball All-Star Tour of Taiwan following the 2011 season.

Ebel is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and is a licensed athletic trainer in Maryland and Florida. He is certified in Active release techniques, A.R.T., and Functional Movement systems, FMS. He has authored or co-authored research papers on shoulder and elbow injuries, as well as catcher's injuries in professional athletes. In May of 2012, he was awarded a United States patent for an orthopedic device for the foot to aid in the treatment of Plantar Fasciitis and heel pain.

Ebel grew up in Versailles, Ind., and has two sons, Brady and Brett. He lives in Baltimore.

MARK SHIRES, ATC

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Shires begins his first season as an Assistant Athletic Trainer and his 20th year as an Athletic Trainer in the Orioles organization. He was named to the post in January of 2018 following 11 years as the Head Athletic Trainer for Triple-A Norfolk. While with the Tides, he was selected to represent the International League in the 2013 Triple-A All-Star Game and was twice named International League Athletic Trainer of the Year (2009 & 2011).

Prior to his tenure with Norfolk, Shires made stops at four levels of the Orioles farm system, including three years at Bowie (2004-06) and at Frederick (2001-03), one year at Delmarva (2000) and one season in the Gulf Coast League (1999). He also worked as an intern for Bowie in 1996-97 before graduating from West Chester University (PA) in 1998. He later completed his master's degree from California University of Pennsylvania in 2004.

He and his wife, Alison Gardiner, married in 2006 in a cermony presided over by Scott McGregor. They reside in West Chester, Pa. with their son, Arthur John "AJ".

PATRICK WESLEY, ATC

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Wesley enters his first season as an Assistant Athletic Trainer and his 15th full season as an Athletic Trainer in the Orioles organization. He was named an Assistant Athletic Trainer in January of 2018 after spending the previous three seasons with Bowie.

Wesley began his career at St. Joseph's Hospital in Breese, IL in 2002 as a trainer supervising teams at a local high school and a Physical Fitness Specialist at Southwestern Illinois College. He joined the Orioles as an Athletic Training Intern at the minor league complex in Sarasota in 2003, and later served as an Athletic Training Intern at Morgan State University (MD) following the conclusion of the minor league season. He spent the 2004 season with Bluefield before joining Aberdeen for two years in 2005. He has also worked for Delmarva (2007-2008), where he was named South Atlantic League Trainer of the year both seasons, as well as the Arizona Fall League (2009) and Frederick (2009-14). Wesley also worked Major League Spring Training from 2011-15.

The McKenndree University (IL) graduate has a Bachelor of Science degree in Athletic Training and is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association. He resides in Frederick, Md.

RICHIE BANCELLS

After 30 years as the Orioles Head Athletic Trainer, Richard "Richie" Bancells retired following the 2017 season. Bancells spent 41 years in the Orioles organization, including 34 years with the big league club. In 2011, Bancells received the Herb Armstrong Award, which honors non-uniformed club personnel for their significant contribution to the ballclub, the community, and the sport of baseball.

BEHIND THE SCENES

JOSEPH HOGARTY

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Hogarty enters his ninth season as the Major League Strength and Conditioning Coach and his 15th in the Orioles organization. Prior to joining the Major League staff, he spent the previous two seasons (2008-09) as the Orioles Minor League Strength and Conditioning Coordinator and four years (2004-07) as the strength and conditioning coach with the Orioles Triple-A affiliate. He began his professional career in 2003 as a strength and conditioning intern for the Triple-A Pawtucket Red Sox.

Hogarty is a 2001 graduate of Bridgewater State University (MA) with a degree in physical education (athletic training). In addition to his baseball duties, Hogarty has spent time in sports medicine and strength and conditioning roles at Northeastern University (MA) and at the United States Olympic Training Center in Lake Placid, N.Y. His uncle, William Hogarty, was drafted by the Washington Senators (1955).

RYOSUKE NAITO

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Naito begins his fifth season as the Strength and Conditioning Coach with the Major League club and his eighth year in the Orioles organization. He was promoted to the Major League staff in 2014 following three years as the Strength and Conditioning Coach for Triple-A Norfolk.

Prior to joining the Orioles, he served as an Intern Performance Coach with Athletes' Performance in Phoenix, AZ (2010) and as an Intern Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach at Springfield College (MA) in 2009-10, where he completed his Masters of Education in Exercise Science and Sports Studies. Naito has previously worked with Oakland's Double-A Midland as the Strength and Conditioning Coach (2009); Oregon State University as the Intern Assistant Athletic Coach (2007-09); and San Francisco's Single-A Salem-Keizer as the Intern Strength and Conditioning Coach (2008).

Naito is a native of Kyoto, Japan and graduated from Mineyama High School. He attended Linn-Benton Community College in Albany, Ore. before completing his Bachelor of Science in Exercise and Sports Science from Oregon State University. He is certified by the National Strength & Conditioning Association.

CHRIS GUTH

HOME CLUBHOUSE/EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Guth enters his sixth year with the Orioles and his 31st year in professional baseball, having also worked for the Yankees, Diamondbacks, and Rangers organizations.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Guth served the Texas Rangers organization as the Manager of Minor League complex operations from 2002-12, where he oversaw daily operations of the complex in Surprise, Ariz.

After nine years as the Yankees Minor League Equipment Manager from 1987-95, Guth joined the expansion Arizona Diamondbacks as their Minor League Equipment Manager during the 1996-97 seasons when they had only minor league teams prior to the expansion draft. When the Diamondbacks joined the National League in 1998, Guth was named their equipment manager, a position he held for three seasons. A Miami native, and graduate of Palmetto (Fla.) High School, Guth and his wife, Lesa, have two sons: Jason and Ryan.

JETT RUIZ

BATTING PRACTICE PITCHER/BULLPEN CATCHER

Ruiz enters his fifth season as a batting practice pitcher and bullpen catcher for the Orioles.

Ruiz attended Boston College from 2004-08, where he was a catcher/first baseman. After his collegiate career, he played two years (2009-10) for the Kalamazoo Kings of the Independent Frontier League. Following his playing career, Ruiz coached 12-13 year-old travel baseball teams in San Diego County. Growing up in San Diego, Ruiz was a travel ball teammate of Orioles outfielder Adam Jones.

JIM TYLER

UMPIRE'S ATTENDANT

Jim Tyler begins his 57th year working for the Orioles and his sixth season as the umpire's attendant. Tyler ran the home clubhouse from 1979 to 2012 after serving seven years as the visiting clubhouse manager. He began working in the Orioles clubhouse in 1962.

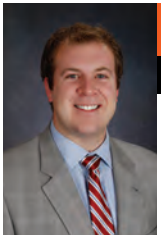
Born and raised in Baltimore, he is a graduate of Baltimore City College High School, located across the street from Memorial Stadium, where the Orioles played for 39 years. Tyler is one of 11 children, including a twin brother, Phil, who also worked for the Orioles in the past. Tyler has two children, Lauren and Joshua, and three grandchildren: Luke, Tessa, and Jack.

FRED TYLER

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Tyler enters his 34th season as the Visiting Clubhouse Manager. He began working around the clubhouse as a teenager, assisting his brother, Jim. In addition to assisting with the equipment and clubhouse needs during Spring Training, Tyler also accompanies the Orioles on some road trips during the season.

Tyler played baseball at Bel Air (MD) High School, Harford Community College, and Towson University. As a senior at Bel Air High, Tyler was named the All-Harford County shortstop, while the All-Harford County pitcher that year was an Aberdeen High School right-handed pitcher named Cal Ripken, Jr. Tyler lives in Arnold, Md. with Debbie Duffy and their son, Sean Duffy Tyler.



KEVIN BUCK

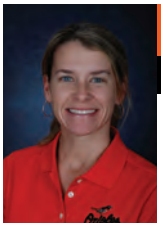
DIRECTOR OF TEAM TRAVEL

Buck enters his 10th year of handling team travel arrangements and accommodations. Buck began traveling with the club in 2009 and handles all aspects of team travel and ticketing for road games.

Buck joined the Orioles in 2003 as a part-time employee in the Sales and Fan Services department. In 2005, he became a full-time new sales representative and worked with Season Plan Members and group events for two years before taking a position as a market research manager in 2007. In 2009, Buck was named coordinator of team travel to assist longtime Orioles Traveling Secretary Phil Itzoe, and spent the season handling the Orioles travel and ticket needs.

A native of Cockeysville, Md., Buck has spent the majority of his life in the Baltimore area. A lifetime Orioles fan, he grew up playing baseball in Cockeysville and attended Dulaney High School before graduating in 1999 and enrolling at the University of Richmond (VA). He graduated with a degree in marketing and communications in 2003, and immediately began working for the Orioles. Buck, and his wife, Cassandra, reside in Baltimore.

BEHIND THE SCENES



NICOLE SHERRY

HEAD GROUNDSKEEPER

Sherry begins her 12th season as the Orioles Head Groundskeeper and her 15th season with the Orioles organization overall. From 2001 through 2003, she served as the Orioles Assistant Head Groundskeeper before spending three seasons (2004-2006) with New York-AL's Double-A Trenton.

She returned to the Orioles organization in November of 2006 after a three-year absence, becoming just the second woman ever to serve as the head groundskeeper with a Major League team. Sherry and Heather Nabozny, who has been with the Detroit Tigers since 1999, are the only female head groundskeepers in Major League Baseball. According to the Sports Turf Managers Association, there have been approximately 10 women who have held the position of head groundskeeper in the history of professional baseball.

Sherry was the first female head groundskeeper in Eastern League history when she was named to that post for the Trenton Thunder in February of 2004, and twice was runner-up for the Eastern League's top groundskeeping award. In 2006, the Thunder honored her with a bobblehead, depicting her riding a tractor.

In February of 2016, Sherry was named the recipient of the Mary Pickersgill Award for Women's Leadership in Business by the Star-Spangled Banner Flag House. Established in 2012, the award honors a woman who demonstrates leadership in her community, exemplifies innovation in her chosen field, and has the power to inspire others.

A native of New Castle, Del., Sherry graduated from the University of Delaware with a degree in agriculture. She worked for several golf courses in Delaware and with the University of Delaware's Research and Education Center, testing new herbicides, prior to joining the Orioles in 2001 as the Assistant Head Groundskeeper. Sherry resides in Eldersburg, Md. with her son, Tyson.

THE BABE RUTH BIRTHPLACE & MUSEUM

On February 6, 1895, George Herman "Babe" Ruth was born at 216 Emory Street in a Baltimore rowhouse located "just a long fly ball" from Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The Birthplace is one of the top baseball museums in the country, featuring an extensive collection of Ruthian artifacts and mementos, as well as serving as the official museum of the Baltimore Orioles and the archives of the Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas.

The Museum showcases different aspects of baseball in exhibits throughout the year. The Museum also hosts appearances by past, present and future Orioles and other Major League stars, as well as nationally known authors of sports publications for lectures and book signings.

For Museum information, call 410-727-1539 or visit www.baberuthmuseum.com.

BIRDS' BIGGEST DEAL

In November-December, 1954, the Orioles and New York Yankees engineered a 17-player deal, one of the biggest in baseball history. General Manager Paul Richards sent the following players to New York: pitchers Mike Blyzka, Don Larsen and Bob Turley; catcher Darrell Johnson, first baseman Dick Kryhoski, shortstop Billy Hunter and outfielders Ted del Guercico and Jim Fridley. The Orioles acquired pitchers Harry Byrd, Jim McDonald and Bill Miller; catchers Hal Smith and Gus Triandos; second baseman Don Leppert, third baseman Kal Segrist, shortstop Willie Miranda and outfielder Gene Woodling.

MAKING THE LAST ONE COUNT

Ted Williams wasn't the only Major Leaguer to hit a home run in his last Major League at-bat when he went deep off the Orioles' Jack Fisher on September 28, 1960 at Fenway Park. Two former O's are among 37 players who have homered in their farewell plate appearance. On September 30, 1956, Joe Frazier (who later managed the New York Mets) homered at Washington off Senators pitcher Ted Abernathy in his final big league plate appearance. On August 2, 1994, Jeff Tackett went deep at Minnesota off Twins hurler Mike Trombley in his last at-bat.

ORIOLES DESIGNATED HITTERS

The Baltimore Orioles Designated Hitters were established in the fall of 1979 as a volunteer sales force and designed primarily to keep baseball in Baltimore by increasing season ticket sales. The Designated Hitters (DHs) became an instrumental part of the Orioles' organizational drive to put fans in the stands. Today, DHs work within the regional corporate community as well as small businesses, nonprofit organizations, schools, local government, and individual customers to sell them on the Orioles. The DH staff members participate out of passion for their hometown team and represent the Orioles as a strong volunteer sales support staff dedicated to the continuing success of the Orioles organization. For more information about the DHs, call 410-547-6071 or email dh@orioles.com.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc. is a unique nonprofit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July of 1960, the Advocates are in their 55th year of "Promoting and Stimulating Interest in Baseball." Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section of the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and established the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1977.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles Public Relations and Community Relations Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular Junior Orioles program (now the Dugout Club) back in 1963 and administered it for 25 years. Membership rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in 1977. The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do, instead serving as volunteers that constantly demonstrate the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Former Orioles pitcher Scott McGregor, now a coach in the Orioles minor league system, is one of 32 first-round draft picks ever to win 20 games in a season. A first-round pick of the Yankees in 1972 (No. 12 overall), he won 20 games for the Orioles in 1980. In addition to McGregor, first round picks who were 20-game winners at least once in their careers include Josh Beckett, Kevin Brown, Chris Carpenter, Roger Clemens, Joe Coleman, R.A. Dickey, Rich Dotson, Dwight Gooden, Gio Gonzalez, Bill Gullickson, Roy Halladay, Rick Helling, Ian Kennedy, Clayton Kershaw, Jack McDowell, Matt Morris, Mark Mulder, Mike Mussina, Mike Norris, Rick Porcello, David Price, J.R. Richard, C.C. Sabathia, Max Scherzer, Rick Sutcliffe, Bill Swift, Justin Verlander, Adam Wainwright, Jered Weaver, Bob Welch, and Barry Zito.

- Former Orioles pitcher Milt Pappas is one of 13 pitchers in Major League history to hit a solo home run and win a game 1-0. He did it April 18, 1962, homering in the fifth inning to beat the Yankees' Bill Stafford at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore.

- Orioles RHP Moe Drabowsky struck out 11 Dodgers in relief in Game 1 of the 1966 World Series, the only reliever to fan 11 batters in a World Series game. Harvey Haddix (June 15, 1964) and Dave Vineyard (September 7, 1964) share the Orioles' regular season record for strikeouts by a reliever, also with 11.

- Al Bumbry is one of 21 American League players to hit three triples in one game. He did so on September 22, 1973 at Milwaukee.

- Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally won at least 20 games each for the Orioles from 1969 through 1971, the only teammates to do that three straight seasons since 1931.

DID YOU KNOW?

• O's infielder Wayne Gross became the first player in Major League history to hit at least 10 homers and drive in fewer than 20 runs in a season in 1985. He hit 11 HR and drove in 18 runs. O's catcher Chris Hoiles holds the record for fewest RBI (40) for a player with 20 home runs in a season, when he did it in 1992.

• The last time a team had a right-handed and left-handed pitcher each win 20 games in a season in the American League was 1980, when RHP Steve Stone (25) and LHP Scott McGregor (20) did it for the Orioles.

• Orioles Hall of Fame pitcher Jim Palmer is the only pitcher to win a World Series game in three different decades.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE

2017 IN REVIEW

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

REGULAR SEASON RECAP: The Orioles finished the regular season with a record of 75-87 (.463) and finished in fifth place of the American League East division…Since 2012, the Orioles own a record of 519-453 (.534) and have made the postseason in three of those six seasons…In 2017, only five teams in the AL finished with a record above .500, and those five represented the AL in the postseason.

HOMER HAPPY: The Orioles hit 232 home runs in 2017 to rank fifth in the majors…The Orioles were tied for the Major League lead in homers after the All-Star break with 109…The O's have led the majors in home runs in three of the past six seasons (2016, 2014, 2013), finishing second in 2012, third in 2015, and fifth in 2017 during the other three years…For four of the past five seasons, the Major League leader in home runs was an Oriole (Chris Davis in 2013, Nelson Cruz in 2014, Chris Davis in 2015, and Mark Trumbo in 2016).

PLENTY WITH TWENTY: Seven O's hitters had 20-or-more home runs in 2017...Manny Machado (33), Jonathan Schoop (32), Chris Davis (26), Adam Jones (26), Trey Mancini (24), Mark Trumbo (23), and Welington Castillo (20) all had at least 20 home runs with the Orioles...The 2017 season marked the second time in Orioles history (since 1954) that the team has had seven players with 20-or-more homers in a season (also 1996)...According to STATS, LLC., the 2017 Orioles were the sixth team with at least seven players with 20-or-more home runs in a season, and first since the 2010 Toronto Blue Jays…Tim Beckham also finished the season with 22 total home runs, having hit 12 while with the Rays and 10 while with the Orioles.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE: Jonathan Schoop was voted the winner of the 2017 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award by members of the local media...Schoop finished the season batting .293/.338/.503 (182-for-622) with 35 doubles, 32 home runs, 105 RBI, and 92 runs scored, having set career-highs in hits, home runs, runs, and RBI...Schoop was named AL Player of the Week for the week of July 17-23, hitting .433/.438/.800 (13-for-30) with two doubles, three home runs, eight runs, and 16 RBI over seven games; his 16 RBI led the majors and his three home runs were tied for the most in the AL during the week…He posted a career-high 26-game on-base streak from April 12-May 12 when he hit .344/.385/.613 (32-for-93) with 10 doubles, five home runs, 14 runs, 17 RBI, four walks, and four hit by pitches…Schoop was selected to the 2017 All-Star Game, his first career All-Star selection, going 1-for-1 with a double and run scored…He established an O's record for RBI by a second baseman and his 32 homers were also a team record for a second baseman, breaking his own record of 25 in 2016.

MAKING HIS CASE: Jonathan Schoop ranked among AL leaders in several categories, and finished 12th in AL MVP voting…He ranked 15th in the AL in batting average (.293) and ranked sixth with 105 RBI…His 32 home runs ranked 18th and his 67 extra-base hits tied for 12th…Schoop's 182 hits ranked sixth in the AL…Schoop was named to his first All-Star team this season and was named AL Player of the Week for July 17-23…Orioles have been named AL MVP five times: Brooks Robinson (1964), Frank Robinson (1966), Boog Powell (1970), and Cal Ripken, Jr. (1983, 1991).

DRIVE 'EM IN: Jonathan Schoop recorded his first career 100 RBI season and became the fastest Oriole to reach 100 RBI (August 31) since Chris Davis in 2013 (August 1)...Schoop established an Orioles record for RBI by a second baseman (primary position), passing Roberto Alomar, who had 94 RBI in 1996…Schoop ranked sixth in the AL and tied for 12th in the majors with 105 RBI during 2017.

RATED ROOKIE: Among qualifying AL rookies, Trey Mancini ranked second in batting average (.293) and slugging percentage (.488), ranked third in on-base percentage (.338) and RBI (78), and tied for third in home runs (24)…Among qualifying Major League rookies, Mancini's 159 hits ranked first…His 159 hits also ranked second-most in Orioles history for a rookie season, behind Eddie Murray's 173 hits in 1977…His 24 home runs ranked third-most in Orioles history for a player during his rookie season, trailing only Murray's 27 in 1977 and Cal Ripken, Jr.'s 28 in 1982...Mancini finished third in the AL Rookie of the Year voting at the conclusion of the season.

SEVENTEEN IN '17: Trey Mancini had a season-long hitting streak of 17 games from September 11-29…According to STATS, LLC., Mancini owned the longest hitting streak for an Orioles rookie in club history and the longest for a rookie in the majors in 2017…His streak was also tied for fifth-longest among all Major League hitters, regardless of rookie status.

TREY'S COMPANY: Rookie Trey Mancini hit eight home runs through his first 17 career games…According to STATS, LLC., the eight homers tied the Major League record (at the time) for most through 17 career games…He joined Carlos Delgado (TOR, 1993-94) and Trevor Story (COL, 2016)…According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Mancini was the first player with eight home runs within his first 15 career hits since Delgado did so for the Blue Jays in 1994...Delgado's eighth career home run came on his 13th hit.

CATCH THIS: O's catchers ranked second in the AL and ranked fifth in the majors with a .275 (162-for-590) average... When catching, Welington Castillo, Caleb Joseph, Francisco Peña, and Chance Sisco combined to notch 25 doubles, one triple, 31 home runs, and 82 RBI…O's catchers ranked second in the majors with 31 homers…Castillo led AL catchers and ranked second in the majors with a .282 batting average and his 20 home runs ranked fourth in the AL and ranked sixth in the majors among catchers (primary position, min. 330 AB).

AN AWESOME AUGUST: In 29 games in August, the Orioles led the majors with a .306 average, a .534 slugging percentage, and 57 home runs...Their 57 home runs set a new Major League record for the month of August, breaking their own record of 55, set last season…The 57 home runs were the third-most hit by a team in any calendar month in Major League history, trailing only the 58 hit by the Orioles in May of 1987 and 58 by the Seattle Mariners in May of 1999…The Orioles ranked second in the AL with 169 RBI and 175 runs during the month…Orioles relievers ranked fourth in the AL and fifth in the majors with a 2.80 ERA during the month.

PLAYER OF THE MONTH: Manny Machado was named the AL Player of the Month for August...Machado batted .341 (43-for-126) with 23 runs, six doubles, a triple, 12 home runs, 35 RBI, and three stolen bases over 29 games to earn his second career Player of the Month award (also April 2016)...Among AL hitters, Machado finished first in RBI, tied for first in home runs, fourth in slugging percentage, and fifth in batting average...Machado became the 10th player in Major League history, and the first in O's history, to record three grand slams in a calendar month.

PLAYERS OF THE WEEK: Three Orioles were named the AL Player of the Week during the 2017 season... Jonathan Schoop was named the AL Player of the Week for July 17-23...Schoop batted .433 (13-for-30) with eight runs, two doubles, three home runs, and 16 RBI over seven games played to earn his first career AL Player of the Week Award... Among AL leaders, Schoop finished the period first in RBI (led the majors), tied for first in hits, home runs and total bases (24), ranked second in runs scored, tied for third in extra-base hits (5), and ranked fourth in slugging percentage (.800)... Schoop earned his first All-Star appearance earlier that month...Tim Beckham was named the AL Player of the Week for July 31-August 6...Beckham hit .583/.600/1.167 with six runs scored, three doubles, a triple, three home runs, and six RBI over six games played to earn his first career AL Player of the Week Award...Among AL leaders, he finished the period first in batting average, on-base percentage, slugging percentage, and total bases (28); tied for first in hits (14) and triples; tied for third in home runs; and tied for seventh in runs scored and doubles...Beckham tallied a hit in each game he played for Baltimore, notching multi-hit efforts in five-of-six contests during the week...Manny Machado was named AL Player of the Week for August 14-20...He batted .385 (10-for-26) with four runs scored, a double, four home runs, and 12 RBI over six games played to earn his third career AL Player of the Week Award, last winning in June 2015...Among AL leaders, Machado finished the week first in RBI, tied for first in home runs, second in total bases (23), tied for second in extra-base hits (5), and ninth in slugging percentage (.885)...Machado posted a hit in each contest during his award-winning week... *Tie games: The Orioles have played 12 tie games; all except one were in Baltimore (one each in '03, '01, '96, '82, and eight others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:50 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:50 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect. Tie games were played against: Chicago White Sox-4, New York Yankees-3, Kansas City A's-3, Milwaukee Brewers-1, Texas Rangers-1.

*Tie games: The Orioles have played 12 tie games; all except one were in Baltimore (one each in '03, '01, '96, '82, and eight others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:50 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:50 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect. Tie games were played against: Chicago White Sox-4, New York Yankees-3, Kansas City A's-3, Milwaukee Brewers-1, Texas Rangers-1.

*Tie games: The Orioles have played 12 tie games; all except one were in Baltimore (one each in '03, '01, '96, '82, and eight others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:50 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:50 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect. Tie games were played against: Chicago White Sox-4, New York Yankees-3, Kansas City A's-3, Milwaukee Brewers-1, Texas Rangers-1.

*Tie games: The Orioles have played 12 tie games; all except one were in Baltimore (one each in '03, '01, '96, '82, and eight others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:50 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:50 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect. Tie games were played against: Chicago White Sox-4, New York Yankees-3, Kansas City A's-3, Milwaukee Brewers-1, Texas Rangers-1.

*Tie games: The Orioles have played 12 tie games; all except one were in Baltimore (one each in '03, '01, '96, '82, and eight others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:50 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:50 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect. Tie games were played against: Chicago White Sox-4, New York Yankees-3, Kansas City A's-3, Milwaukee Brewers-1, Texas Rangers-1.

MINOR LEAGUE PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

After a pair of breakout campaigns, the Orioles selected OF Austin Hays and LHP Alex Wells as the club's top minor league player and pitcher for the 2017 season.

Hays, the Brooks Robinson Minor League Player of the Year, led all Orioles minor leaguers with a .329 average in 128 games between Class A-Advanced Frederick and Double-A Bowie. The 22-year-old outfielder began the season with the Frederick Keys and appeared in 64 games, batting .328 with 16 home runs and 41 RBI. He was promoted to the Bowie Baysox on June 22, where he produced almost identical numbers, slashing .330/.367/.594 with 16 homers and 54 RBI in 64 games. Hays earned his first career All-Star selection with Frederick, and was named Carolina League Player of the Week three times last year. He also earned Orioles Minor League Player of the Month honors in June after batting .373 with eight doubles, 22 RBI, and 15 runs scored in 26 games between Frederick and Bowie. His 32 total home runs were the most in the Orioles organization and ranked tied for second-most among all minor league players last season. Hays joined the Major League club on September 5 and made his MLB debut two days later. He batted .217 with one home run and eight RBI in 20 games with the Orioles.

Wells, the Jim Palmer Minor League Pitcher of the Year, spent the entire season with Class-A Delmarva. The 20-year-old left-hander posted a record of 11-5 with a 2.38 ERA (37 ER/140.0 IP) in 25 starts for the Shorebirds, striking out a career-high 113 batters against just 10 walks. Wells led the South Atlantic League in ERA and WHIP (0.91), while ranking second in wins, and seventh in innings pitched (140.0). He also ranked among organizational leaders in ERA (1st), wins (T-1st) and strikeouts (T-3rd). Wells was named both the South Atlantic Player of the Month and Orioles Minor League Pitcher of the Month in July after working 31.0 scoreless innings across five starts. In that span, he limited opponents to a .124 average (13 hits) with 26 strikeouts and zero walks. Wells did not issue a walk in any of his final 11 starts and finished the year with the fewest walks in all of minor league baseball (minimum 110.0 innings). He went an undefeated 7-0 in 11 starts at home, posting a 1.75 ERA (13 ER/67.0 IP) at Perdue Stadium.

EUTAW STREET HOME RUNS

Of the 93 home runs hit onto the Eutaw Street promenade since Oriole Park opened in 1992, Orioles batters have hit 40, including 10 by Chris Davis, the most by an individual. Jason Giambi's three are the most by an opposing player. A season-high 11 homers landed on Eutaw St. in 2012. Luke Scott's blast on July 19, 2008 is the only walk-off Eutaw St. home run in park history.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

NOTES: The O's have out-slammed their opponents, 257-218, in their 64-year regular season history...The Orioles have hit three postseason grand slams (one on the road and two in Baltimore - one each at Memorial Stadium (McNally 1970) and Oriole Park (Bonilla 1996)...They have a 148-94 advantage in Baltimore during the regular season, including a 74-53 edge at Oriole Park at Camden Yards...A BIG MONTH: Manny Machado hit three grand slams in August of 2017, becoming the 10th player in Major League Baseball history, and the first in Orioles history, to hit three grand slams in one calendar month...TWO IN ONE INNING: Steve Clevenger and Nolan Reimold each slugged a grand slam in the bottom of the eighth inning on September 11, 2015, the first set of teammates to each hit a grand slam in the same inning since Carlos Beltran and Cliff Floyd of the New York Mets on July 16, 2006 vs. Chicago-NL... THREE IN ONE GAME: The Orioles and Rangers combined to hit three grand slams on August 6, 1986 in the Rangers' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium...Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit fourth inning grand slams for the Orioles...TWO IN ONE GAME: An Oriole has hit two grand slams in the same game three times...Chris Hoiles hit a pair of grand slams on August 14, 1998 at Cleveland, connecting in the third and eighth innings...Jim Gentile and Frank Robinson previously did it for the O's, and are among four players who have done it in consecutive at bats...Gentile hit slams in the first and second innings at Minnesota on May 9, 1961...Robinson did it in the fifth and sixth innings at Washington on June 26, 1970...GENTILE HIT FIVE IN 1961: Gentile set an American League record and tied the Major League record then held by the Cubs' Ernie Banks when he hit five bases loaded homers in 1961...The Yankees' Don Mattingly broke the mark with six grand slams in 1987 and Cleveland's Travis Hafner matched that record in 2006... POSTSEASON SLAMMING PITCHERS: Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally are the only two Major League pitchers to hit grand slams in postseason play, and both did it in 1970 with the Orioles...Cuellar connected in ALCS Game 1 off the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minnesota)... McNally hit his in World Series Game 3 off the Reds' Wayne Granger at Memorial Stadium...Cuellar's slam was the first in LCS history... GOPHER PITCHERS: Milt Pappas gave up six bases-loaded homers as an Oriole, most by any O's hurler...Pappas gave up nine overall in his career, tied with Jerry Reuss (1969-90), Ned Garver (1948-61), Tom Gordon (1988-2009), Lee Smith (1980-97), and Frank Viola (1982-96) for the sixth-highest total of career grand slams allowed in Major League history behind Mike Jackson (1986-2004), Kyle Lohse (2001-16), and Nolan Ryan (1966-93), who allowed 10, and Ryan Dempster (1998-2013) and Kenny Rogers (1989-2008) who allowed 11...Jake Arrieta, Dave McNally, Scott McGregor, Alan Mills, Jesse Orosco, and Chris Ray are next among Oriole pitchers, allowing four apiece...Jim Palmer never allowed a grand slam in 558 games spanning 3948.0 innings.

NOTES ON 20-GAME WINNERS: Although the Orioles have not had one in the past 33 seasons, Baltimore pitchers have produced 24 20-win seasons including 23 in the past 49 years (starting in '68), more than any other Major League club...The A's (17), Yankees (16), Cardinals (13), Red Sox (13), White Sox (12), Braves (12), Dodgers (12), Tigers (11), and Astros (10), Cubs (10), and Twins (10) are the only other teams with 10 or more since 1968.

In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau...The only other foursome in the history of Major League Baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicotte-21...Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

Steve Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team-record 25 victories in 1980...Three other Orioles hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (August 25) and Cuellar (August 27) in 1971, and Palmer (August 20) in 1975.

The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore (1954 through 1967), was left-hander Steve Barber in 1963.

2000	September 1	at Cleveland Indians	6-4-3	Shortstop Melvin Mora let a pop up drop inducing a triple play
2017	May 2	at Boston Red Sox	6-4-3	Short pop up fell in left field freezing the runners
2017	August 3	vs. Detroit Tigers	5-4-3	Second time turning two triple plays in the same season

The Orioles have executed 14 triple plays and have hit into 18 in 64 seasons.

The Orioles turned two triple plays in 2017, the second time in club history turning two in the same season (1973). The first came on May 2 in Boston when the Orioles turned a 6-4-3 triple play. Boston CF Jackie Bradley, Jr. hit a pop fly to short left field that fell between LF Trey Mancini and SS J.J. Hardy. The runner at second base, Mitch Moreland, and the runner at first base, Dustin Pedroia, both did not run thinking the ball was going to be caught, and Bradley, Jr. retreated to the dugout thinking the same thing. Hardy then picked up the ball and threw to 2B Jonathan Schoop who tagged Moreland for the first out and stepped on second forcing out Pedroia for out number two, before throwing to 1B Chris Davis for the third and final out which forced out Bradley, Jr. who had already went to the dugout.

The second triple play of 2017, and the most recent turned by the Orioles, occured on August 3 at Oriole Park when Detroit's James McCann grounded into a 5-4-3 triple play. With Victor Martínez at second base and Mikie Mahtook at first base, 3B Manny Machado fielded McCann's grounder, stepped on third to force out Martínez, then threw to 2B Jonathan Schoop to force out Mahtook, who then threw to 1B Chris Davis to force out McCann and complete the triple play.

A similar triple play to the one in Boston in 2017, took place on September 1, 2000, at Cleveland. In the second inning, with Sandy Alomar, Jr. at the plate, Travis Fryman at second base, and Wil Cordero at first base, SS Melvin Mora allowed Alomar's short fly to left to bounce in front of him. The Cleveland runners, thinking the infield fly rule had been called, did not run and Alomar headed to the dugout. Mora picked up the ball and threw to 2B Jerry Hairston, who tagged Fryman and stepped on second to force Cordero. After realizing Alomar had not reached first base, Sidney Ponson flipped the ball to Jeff Conine at first to retire Alomar. After some discussion by the umpires and the ejection of Cleveland manager Charlie Manuel, the play stood and the inning ended.

The Orioles have hit into two triple plays at Oriole Park. The most recent was April 3, 1996, against Kansas City, when DH Bobby Bonilla grounded into a 5-4-3-2 triple play. With Roberto Alomar at third base and Rafael Palmeiro at first, 3B Joe Randa gloved Bonilla's grounder and threw to 2B Bip Roberts to force Palmeiro. As Roberts threw to first to double up Bonilla, Alomar streaked toward the plate and was thrown out by 1B Bob Hamelin, who threw to C Sal Fasano.

On April 12, 2013, at New York-AL, Manny Machado hit into a 4-6-5-6-5-3-4 triple play, the most recent triple play turned against the Orioles.

GOLD GLOVE AWARDS

The Gold Glove Award was initiated in 1957 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellence by a vote of managers and coaches in each league. Third baseman Manny Machado earned his second career Gold Glove award in 2015 (also, 2013).

Gold Glove totals by each team: Cardinals 86, ORIOLES 71, Yankees 65, Reds 54, Braves 52, Pirates 49, Phillies 46, Red Sox and Twins 45, Dodgers 44, Tigers 43, Giants 42, Mariners and Cubs 39, Senators/Rangers 38, Angels 37, White Sox 36, Royals 32, Indians 31, Astros 25, Blue Jays 24, Expos/Nationals 23, Padres 22, Athletics and Rockies 21, Mets 20, Diamondbacks and Marlins 12, Brewers 10, and Rays 8.

A total of 17 Orioles have won Gold Gloves, with all 17 winning multiple times, led by Brooks Robinson, who is tied with pitcher Jim Kaat for second place all-time with 16 Gold Gloves. Greg Maddux is first all-time with 18 Gold Gloves.

Orioles winners include: Paul Blair and Mark Belanger (eight each); Adam Jones, Jim Palmer, Bobby Grich, and Mike Mussina (four each); J.J. Hardy, Davey Johnson, and Eddie Murray (three each); Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Manny Machado, Nick Markakis, Rafael Palmeiro, Cal Ripken, Jr., and Matt Wieters (two each). Alomar won a total of 10 Gold Gloves in his career, Aparicio won nine total, Mussina seven total, and Palmeiro three total.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

ALL-STAR NOTES

BIRDS OF A FEATHER: The Orioles have had 21 All-Stars over the last six seasons (since 2012)...According to STATS, LLC., the 21 Orioles All-Stars since 2012 are tied for the American League lead and are tied for the second-most in the majors behind St. Louis (26)... The Orioles are one of eight Major League teams with at least 20 All-Stars over the last six seasons.

FIVE STARS: Five Orioles were named American League All-Stars in 2016, including RHP Brad Brach, LHP Zach Britton, 3B Manny Machado, OF Mark Trumbo, and C Matt Wieters...Brach made the first All-Star Game appearance of his career...Britton and Trumbo made their second All-Star Game appearances...Machado was an All-Star for the third time (also 2013, 2015) and Wieters made his fourth All-Star Game appearance (also 2011, 2012, 2014)…Machado was voted by fans as the starting third baseman for the American League team in the Midsummer Classic...Britton earned the save for the American League squad, allowing one hit over a scoreless ninth inning.

GAME WINNER: In 2009, in his first All-Star Game, CF Adam Jones went 0-1 with a sacrifice fly and the game-winning RBI...At 23 years old, he was the third-youngest player with a game-winning RBI in the eighth inning or later of an All-Star Game, behind Ted Williams (1941) and Hank Blalock (2003), each of whom did it at age 22...Jones was the youngest Oriole to make the AL squad since Mike Mussina (also 23) in 1992 and the youngest O's position player to make the squad since Cal Ripken, Jr. (22) in 1983.

MULTIFACETED: LHP George Sherrill, who had spent all or parts of five years in independent baseball, was named to the 2008 All-Star team and pitched 2.1 scoreless innngs in the game, which was held in old Yankee Stadium…After having 28 saves at the break, Sherrill became the first pitcher since 1987 to work more than 2.0 innings in an All-Star Game.

DOUBLE-PLAY DUOS: In 2005, 2B Brian Roberts and SS Miguel Tejada became the first Orioles teammates to start in the All-Star Game since 2B Roberto Alomar and 3B Cal Ripken, Jr. each started in 1998...They were the third 2B-SS tandem from the same team to start for the AL since fan balloting returned in 1970, joining New York's Willie Randolph and Bucky Dent in 1981 along with Alomar and Ripken in 1996.

CAL'S FINALE: 3B Cal Ripken, Jr., playing in his final All-Star Game, homered on the first pitch he saw in the third inning and went on to win his second All-Star MVP Award in the 2001 All-Star Game at Seattle's Safeco Field...Ripken, the lone Oriole selected to play in the game, led off the inning and turned on the first pitch from Los Angeles' Chan Ho Park to give the American League a 1-0 lead it would not relinquish...It was the 19th time Ripken was either elected or selected to the AL All-Star squad, breaking Brooks Robinson's AL mark; he technically started at shortstop after Texas' Alex Rodriguez 'pushed' him to the position and played third base himself in the first inning... Ripken also won MVP honors in the 1991 game, homering at Toronto...With the 2001 home run, he became the oldest player (40) to homer in an All-Star Game and the only Oriole to homer twice in All-Star play.

ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: Cal Ripken, Jr. was elected to start 18 years, 17 of those by fan vote...He was unable to play because of injury in 2000...Other Orioles elected to starting berths are Brooks Robinson (four times); Roberto Alomar and Adam Jones (three times); Boog Powell and Frank Robinson (two each); and Manny Machado, Nelson Cruz, J.J. Hardy, Chris Davis, Bobby Grich, Ken Singleton, Eddie Murray, Terry Kennedy, Brady Anderson, Brian Roberts, and Miguel Tejada (one each).

HOME RUN DERBY: OF Mark Trumbo competed in the 2016 T-Mobile Home Run Derby...Trumbo, the No. 1 seed, defeated Corey Seager in the opening round of the bracket-style format, 16-15, before falling to No. 5 seed and eventual Home Run Derby champion Giancarlo Stanton of the Miami Marlins in the semifinals, 17-14...A No. 5 seed in the 2015 Home Run Derby, Manny Machado was defeated by the Dodgers' Joc Pederson (No. 4 seed) in the first round of the bracket format, 13-12...In 2014, Adam Jones was selected by captain Jose Bautista to represent the AL at Target Field (Minneapolis)...After blasting four in the first round, Jones was ousted by Yoenis Cespedes in the second round, finishing with seven home runs total...After leading the majors in homers at the break, Chris Davis took part in the 2013 Home Run Derby at Citi Field in New York...He finished fourth...A last-minute replacement to the 2004 Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park in Houston, Miguel Tejada set records at the time for home runs in one round (15) and overall (27) to win the contest...He was the second Oriole to win the derby, joining Cal Ripken, Jr., who hit 12 homers at Toronto's SkyDome in 1991...Tejada also took part in the 2006 Home Run Derby in Detroit after declining to participate in the 2005 contest, instead bowing to David Ortiz to represent the Dominican Republic in the revised United States vs. the World format.

ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: Miguel Tejada's home run in the 2005 game at Detroit was the seventh overall by an Oriole in an All-Star Game...Cal Ripken, Jr. also hit two home runs in All-Star Games, in 1991 (July 9 at Toronto off Dennis Martinez, two on) and 2001 (July 10 at Seattle off Chan Ho Park, solo)...The others were by Brooks Robinson (July 11, 1967 at Anaheim off Fergie Jenkins, solo); Frank Robinson (July 13, 1971 at Detroit off Dock Ellis, one on); Ken Singleton (August 9, 1981 at Cleveland off Tom Seaver, solo); and Roberto Alomar (July 7, 1998 at Colorado off Trevor Hoffman, solo).

BALTIMORE AS ALL-STAR HOST: The Orioles have played host to two All-Star Games...The 25th Midsummer Classic was held at Memorial Stadium in 1958, and the 64th All-Star Game was held at Oriole Park in 1993...On July 8, 1958, Orioles pitcher Billy O'Dell retired the final nine batters as the AL posted a 4-3 win before 48,829 fans at Memorial Stadium...Baltimore's Gus Triandos was the starting catcher, and 11 future Hall of Famers saw action in the game...In its second year of existence, Oriole Park at Camden Yards played host to baseball's first-ever All-Star Week, including the AL's 9-3 win on July 13, 1993...The game drew 48,147 fans...Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to appear in the game, going 0-for-3...Pitcher Mike Mussina was selected to the team but did not get into the game...FanFest, the baseball theme park that is now a part of All-Star Week, drew 111,883 visitors during the five-day celebration...Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week '93 came on Monday, July 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout...Juan Gonzalez crushed a ball off the facing of the upper deck in left field, and Ken Griffey Jr. became the first player to hit the B&O Warehouse during the Home Run Derby.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

1966

The Orioles went 97-63 and claimed their first American League pennant, but faced the defending World Champion Los Angeles Dodgers and a couple of pitchers named Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale in the World Series.

The underdog Orioles swept the four-game series, beating Drysdale in Games 1 and 4. At the age of 20, Jim Palmer beat Koufax in Game 2 to become the youngest pitcher to ever throw a shutout in the World Series.

Frank Robinson, who also won the Triple Crown in 1966, was named the World Series Most Valuable Player after homering twice, but it was the pitching that led the way as the Orioles allowed just two runs on 17 hits in the entire series, blanking the Dodgers over the final three games.

Following the season, Frank Robinson, Brooks Robinson, and Boog Powell finished 1-2-3 in American League MVP voting.

1969

The 1969 Orioles went a franchise record 109-53 and won the division by a whopping 19 games. They continued their demolition of the American League in the League Championship Series, sweeping the Minnesota Twins in three games.

After the first two games were decided by a run in extra innings in Baltimore, including a two-out RBI bunt single by Paul Blair in the 12th inning in Game 1, the Orioles broke out for 11 runs on 18 hits in Game 3 in Minnesota to make a winner out of Jim Palmer and advance to their second World Series.

Squaring off in the World Series against the New York Mets, the Orioles claimed Game 1 by a score of 4-1. The Orioles' bats went silent the rest of the series as they managed just five runs on 17 hits over the next four games as the "Miracle" Mets won four straight for their first World Championship.

1970

A year after winning 109 games, the 1970 Orioles went 108-54 and steamrolled into the postseason, again facing the Twins in the ALCS. The Birds brought their bats, scoring 27 runs on 36 hits in the three-game sweep. Earl Weaver's crew battered the Twins for six home runs in the three games, including a Game 1 grand slam by starting pitcher Mike Cuellar.

In the World Series, the Orioles faced the mighty Cincinnati Reds, led by Johnny Bench, Tony Perez, and Pete Rose. The Reds had recorded a 102-win season of their own and swept the Pittsburgh Pirates in the National League Championship Series.

The Orioles clubbed 10 home runs in the series and outscored the Reds 33-20 in the five-game set to claim their second World Series crown. Series MVP Brooks Robinson made himself a household name with several sterling defensive plays in the series, which led Lee May to nickname him "Hoover" — like the vacuum cleaner.

1971

The Orioles recorded their franchise record third consecutive 100-win season, going 101-57. On the strength of starting pitchers Dave McNally, Cuellar, and Palmer, the Oakland Athletics proved no match for the mighty Orioles in the ALCS as the Birds swept the Athletics in three games, limiting them to seven runs in the series.

Waiting for the Orioles in the World Series were the Pirates, with superstars Roberto Clemente and Willie Stargell. The Orioles took a 2-0 lead in the series, as McNally and Palmer recorded wins at home. The Pirates rebounded to take all three games in Pittsburgh, pushing the Orioles to the brink of elimination in Game 6. With the game tied through nine innings, Brooks Robinson's sacrifice fly in the bottom of the 10th frame scored Frank Robinson, setting up Game 7. Clemente homered and Steve Blass went the distance to knock off the Orioles for the Pirates' fourth World Series title.

A packed Memorial Stadium saw the Orioles take a 2-0 lead in the 1971 Fall Classic.

1973

The 1973 Orioles went 97-65 to claim their fourth AL East crown in a five-year span, and again squared off with the Athletics in the ALCS.

Despite a Game 1 shutout by Palmer, the Athletics won Games 2 and 3 to take a 2-1 lead in the series. After the Orioles claimed Game 4, they faced Oakland's Jim "Catfish" Hunter in Game 5 at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. Hunter went the distance for his second win of the series, eliminating the Orioles.

The 1974 Orioles won the AL East with a 91-71 record and were rewarded with yet another ALCS matchup with the Oakland Athletics.

Cuellar started the series opener for the Birds and won, 6-3, on the strength of homers by Paul Blair, Bobby Grich, and Brooks Robinson. That game would be their only win of the 1974 postseason as Ken Holtzman, Vida Blue, and Catfish Hunter held the Orioles to one run on 12 hits over the next three games.

Many Orioles fans will tell you the 1979 playoff run began on June 22, when Doug DeCinces' two-out, two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth inning capped a monumental comeback against Detroit, giving birth to "Orioles Magic." The Orioles finished 102-57, winning the division by eight games.

The Orioles played the California Angels in the ALCS and won the series opener in dramatic fashion on a pinch-hit, three-run homer in the bottom of the 10th inning by John Lowenstein. The Birds continued their offensive attack in Game 2, jumping out to a 9-1 lead after three innings. The Angels stormed back, but the Birds held on for a 9-8 win and 2-0 series advantage. The Angels claimed Game 3 in Anaheim, but Scott McGregor went the distance in a six-hit shutout in Game 4 to seal the American League crown.

Facing the "We Are Family" Pirates in the World Series, the Orioles jumped out to a 3-1 series lead, but the Pirates battled back on the strength of their pitching staff as they allowed one run in Games 5 and 6 combined to force a Game 7 in Baltimore. The Birds took an early lead on a home run to start the third inning by Rich Dauer. But Stargell, the Series MVP, answered with a two-run shot in the sixth inning off McGregor to lift the Pirates to a 4-1 win and World Championship.

The O's knocked off the Angels in the ALCS before facing Pittsburgh in the World Series.

The Orioles were in fourth place in the East on August 12, but went 36-15 to finish the season and won the division by six games. The Birds squared off with the Chicago White Sox in the ALCS and dropped a heartbreaker at home in the series opener. Rookie Mike Boddicker, making his first postseason start in Game 2, tossed a five-hit shutout, striking out 14, to even the series for the Orioles. Eddie Murray's three-run homer in the first inning set the tone in Game 3 as the Orioles rolled to an 11-1 win. Storm Davis and Tippy Martinez combined to blank the White Sox for 10 innings in Game 4, and Tito Landrum's homer in the 10th helped the Birds to a 3-1 series win and their sixth World Series appearance.

After losing the series opener at home in a game where solo homers accounted for all three runs, the Birds bounced back behind Boddicker's second win of the postseason as he allowed just one unearned run in a 4-1 win. With a relief win in Game 3, Palmer put the Orioles up two games to one, and became the only pitcher to win World Series games in three different decades. Scott McGregor took the hill in Game 5 on the brink of a World Championship, delivering a shutout and the Orioles' third World Championship.

1996

The 1996 Orioles claimed the Wild Card spot in the postseason after setting a Major League-record with 10 different players hitting at least 10 home runs. They continued their power prowess by homering nine times in the four-game ALDS against Cleveland, winning the series, 3-1.

Home runs would be a factor again in the ALCS against the New York Yankees as the Birds had a 4-3 lead entering the bottom of the eighth inning in Game 1. Derek Jeter's fly ball to right was caught by a 12-year-old fan named Jeffrey Maier, who reached over the wall into the field of play just before O's right fielder Tony Tarasco could make a play on the ball. The umpires ruled it a home run, tying the game before series MVP Bernie Williams won it with a walk-off homer in the 11th inning.

The Orioles left New York with a split of the first two games of the series, but the Yankees swept all three games in Baltimore to advance to the World Series. The clubs combined for 19 home runs in the series (the Orioles hit nine), accounting for 29 of the 46 runs scored.

1997

The Orioles led the AL East from start to finish and entered the postseason with an ALDS matchup against Seattle. These "Wire to Wire" Birds roughed up Mariners starter Randy Johnson in Game 1 en route to a 9-3 win, and captured Game 2 at the Kingdome by an identical score. After the Mariners won Game 3 in Baltimore, the Orioles were set to face off with Johnson once again. The Birds beat the Big Unit once more, 3-1, on the strength of homers by Jeff Reboulet and Geronimo Berroa.

The Orioles opened the ALCS at home against the Cleveland Indians, with Scott Erickson dazzling for 8.0 scoreless innings in Game 1 as the Orioles won, 3-0. The next three games would be decided by one run, all going in favor of the Tribe. The Orioles bounced back in Game 5, winning 4-2. Game 6 was a pitcher's duel for the ages, as Mike Mussina worked 8.0 scoreless innings for the Orioles, but Cleveland's Charles Nagy and a cast of relievers were equally as tough, leading to a scoreless game through 10 innings. Tony Fernandez hit a two-out home run off Armando Benitez in the 11th inning to win the game to eliminate the Orioles.

2012

After a 14-year hiatus, the Orioles returned to the postseason in 2012, meeting the Texas Rangers in the first-ever American League Wild Card Game. The Orioles won, 5-1, behind starter Joe Saunders, some strong relief pitching, and a pair of RBI from leadoff hitter Nate McLouth.

The Orioles and Yankees squared off in the ALDS with the first two games before raucous crowds at Oriole Park. Game 1 was tied through eight innings before the Yankees tagged closer Jim Johnson for five runs in the ninth inning. Wei-Yin Chen worked into the seventh inning allowing just two runs in Game 2 to help even the series with a 3-2 win. In Game 3 in the Bronx, Ryan Flaherty and Manny Machado became the first Orioles rookies to homer in the postseason, but the Birds fell 3-2 in extra innings. Game 4 was another nail biter as the teams were tied through 12 innings. J.J. Hardy doubled home Manny Machado in the 13th to even the series at two wins apiece. CC Sabathia proved to be too much for the Orioles in the fifth and deciding game as he allowed just one run in a complete game effort.

After pulling into a tie for the division lead on July 3, the Orioles would not relinquish their first-place standing, eventually finishing with the second-best record in Major League Baseball at 96-66 and their first American League East division title since 1997. The Birds would draw the American League Central division champion Detroit Tigers in the ALDS, and faced the AL's last three Cy Young Award winners at the time in Max Scherzer, Justin Verlander, and David Price. After the Tigers pulled within one run in the top of the eighth inning in Game 1, the Orioles erupted for eight runs in the bottom half of the frame en route to a 12-3 rout. In Game 2, Detroit would climb out of an early hole with a five-run fourth inning, but the Birds would battle back, taking the lead in the bottom of the eighth after a bases-clearing, three-run double off the bat of pinch-hitter Delmon Young. The Orioles would complete the sweep at Comerica Park in Game 3 behind 6.1 scoreless frames from starter Bud Norris and Nelson Cruz's two-run home run in the sixth inning, winning 2-1 to set up an ALCS showdown with the Wild Card champion Kansas City Royals.

In the first American League Championship Series game at Oriole Park since 1997, the Orioles would rally to send Game 1 against Kansas City into extra innings. After going a Major League-best 14-6 in extra-inning games during the regular season, a pair of home runs in the top of the 10th by Alex Gordon and Mike Moustakas would sink the Orioles, 8-6. In Game 2, the Birds and Royals would remain locked in a 4-4 draw before Kansas City pushed two runs across in the top of the ninth for a 6-4 victory and a 2-0 lead in the series. The Orioles jumped out to a 1-0 lead early in Game 3, but the Royals tied the game in the fourth and took a one-run lead in the sixth. The Kansas City bullpen posted four straight hitless innings to win 2-1. With Games 1-3 decided by a total of five runs, Game 4 proved to be yet another thriller as the Royals scored twice in the first inning to take a 2-0 lead. After a solo home run from Ryan Flaherty cut Kansas City's lead in half, the Royals' bullpen once again stifled the Orioles lineup, tossing 3.2 scoreless innings in relief of starter Jason Vargas to complete the sweep.

For the third time in five seasons, the Orioles advanced to postseason play, clinching a berth in the American League Wild Card Game in the final game of the regular season with a 5-2 victory over the New York Yankees at Yankee Stadium. Baltimore traveled to Toronto to take on the Blue Jays at Rogers Centre for the one-game playoff on October 4.

The Blue Jays jumped out to a 1-0 lead after Toronto's José Bautista slugged a second-inning solo home run off Orioles starter Chris Tillman. The Orioles battled back and claimed a one-run lead in the fourth inning when Major League Baseball's regular season home run leader, Mark Trumbo, belted a two-run shot off Blue Jays starter Marcus Stroman to put Baltimore on top. Toronto would knot the game at two runs apiece in the bottom of the fifth inning, a score that would eventually send the game into extra innings. After two consecutive one-out singles by the Blue Jays off Ubaldo Jiménez, appearing in relief in the bottom of the 11th inning, Toronto's Edwin Encarnación ended the game with a three-run, walk-off home run.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

BASEBALL IN BALTIMORE

1872 – The Lord Baltimores, the city's first professional team, began play in the National Association. In their inaugural game on April 18 in Washington, they beat the Olympics, 16-0. In their home opener on April 22, before 3,500 fans at Newington Park (on Pennsylvania Avenue below Baker Street), they beat the New York Mutuals, 14-9. The team folded in its third season as a rival franchise, the Maryland Base Ball Club, turned from amateur to professional and took its place in the league through 1874. By 1875 the National Association itself had folded.

1882 – A newly formed Lord Baltimores team made its debut in the American Association, a new rival to the National League. A year later, the franchise moved to newly built Oriole Park (on the southwest corner of what is now Greenmount Avenue and 25th Street) and adopted the name "Orioles," the first time that Maryland's state bird was used as a nickname in association with Baltimore's professional baseball team.

1884 – Two more Baltimore teams were formed. One, also named the Orioles, played in the new Union Association; by mid-season they were transferred to Lancaster, Pa., and the league folded after one season. The other, the Monumentals, became a charter member of the Eastern Association, which would become today's International League, but the team broke up after a mere 13 games.

1892 – Baltimore joined the National League. Games were played at Union Park, a 12,000-seat stadium at the northeast corner of Barclay and 25th Street.

1894-1896 – With innovative Ned Hanlon as manager, the scrappy Orioles won three straight National League pennants, led by future Hall of Famers John McGraw, Dan Brouthers, Joe Kelley, Willie Keeler, and Hughie Jennings.

1899 – With most of their star players having been sold to Brooklyn, the Orioles finished their eighth season before folding. There would be no professional team in Baltimore as the new century dawned.

1901 – A new Baltimore Orioles team joined the upstart American League, with John McGraw as manager and an overflow crowd of 10,371 at Opening Day. The Orioles played two seasons in Baltimore before relocating to New York as the Highlanders – eventually to become the New York Yankees.

1903 – A minor league team using the name Baltimore Orioles joined the Eastern League. They were in existence for nine seasons, playing at American League Park, at York Road and 29th Street. The team won the league pennant in 1908 under second-year manager Jack Dunn.

1912 – The minor league Orioles joined the International League. They were a part of the league for the next 42 seasons until Major League Baseball returned.

1914 – A second Baltimore team, the Terrapins (named for an edible type of turtle common to the state of Maryland), entered the newly formed Federal League. The league folded after just two seasons. The team played at Terrapin Park, built on the west side of Greenmount Avenue between 29th and 30th street; two years later, Jack Dunn bought the ballpark and renamed it Oriole Park.

1914 – Jack Dunn, owner, general manager, and manager of the International League Orioles, signed 19-year-old George Herman Ruth out of a Baltimore orphanage. Oriole players kid Dunn about his "babe," and a nickname was born. By July, Babe Ruth was sold to the Boston Red Sox.

1919-1925 – The Orioles, led by Dunn, won a record seven straight International League titles. For five of those years (1920-24), future Hall of Famer Lefty Grove lead the pitching staff, going 108-36.

1920s-40s – The city fielded two teams in the Negro Leagues - the Elite Giants and the Black Sox. Second baseman James "Junior" Gilliam and Hall of Fame catcher Roy Campanella each played two different stints for the Elite Giants on their way to Major League careers with the Brooklyn Dodgers' "Boys of Summer."

1944 – After winning the International League title, the Orioles beat Louisville of the American Association to win the Junior World Series. It wasn't easy, however; a fire in the early morning hours of July 4 destroyed Oriole Park, led the team to use Municipal Stadium, a football facility on 33rd Street. One game of the Junior World Series drew 52,833 paid fans, outdrawing each of the World Series games in St. Louis between the Browns and Cardinals and attracted interest from teams in the Major Leagues and professional football.

1953 – The Orioles, owned by Jack Dunn III, played their final season in the International League. After two votes failed, on September 29, American League owners approved the sale of the financially struggling St. Louis Browns franchise to a Baltimore-based consortium led by attorney Clarence W. Miles and brewery owner Jerold C. Hoffberger.

BACK IN THE MAJORS

1954 – Playing in renovated Municipal Stadium (later called Memorial Stadium), Baltimore returned to the Major Leagues and the Orioles returned to the American League after 52 years. After splitting two games in Detroit to begin the season, the Orioles returned to Baltimore by train – arriving, ironically, at Camden Station, just a few yards from the current ballpark – and a lengthy parade through the streets prior to their home opener on April 15. They beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-1, but went on to a 54-100 season.

NOVEMBER 18, 1954 – In a trade that took two weeks to complete, the Orioles and Yankees swapped 18 players as new manager/general manager Paul Richards laid the groundwork for the coming years. The Orioles received 11 players, including catcher Gus Triandos, outfielder Gene Woodling, and Willie Miranda, first in a long line of outstanding defensive shortstops.

1955 – Brooks Robinson was signed; he made his Major League debut on September 17 but did not establish himself as the regular third baseman and future Hall of Famer until 1958.

JULY 8, 1958 – Memorial Stadium hosted its first and only All-Star Game. The Orioles' Billy O'Dell retired the last nine batters to preserve a 4-3 win for the American League.

SEPTEMBER 20, 1958 – Knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm hurled the first no-hitter in Orioles history, beating the Yankees 1-0 at Memorial Stadium. Two years later, manager Paul Richards introduced the "big mitt" designed to help catchers cut down on passed balls and wild pitches from Wilhelm's knuckleball.

SEPTEMBER 18, 1963 – Steve Barber became the first 20-game winner in club history, beating the Angels, 3-1, in California.

JUNE 1965 – Jerry Hoffberger, whose family was among the original group of owners of the Orioles when it moved to Baltimore, took control of the ballclub as majority owner. He led the club for 14 years, during which the Orioles went to the postseason six times.

DECEMBER 9, 1965 – The Orioles made arguably the greatest trade in franchise history, acquiring former All-Star outfielder Frank Robinson from the Cincinnati Reds for Milt Pappas and two players acquired earlier in the week, Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson. New GM Harry Dalton completed the trade, which had begun a month earlier by his predecessor, Lee MacPhail, Jr.

MAY 8, 1966 – Frank Robinson hit the only fair ball ever to leave Memorial Stadium, a shot over the left field bleachers measured at 465 ft. The Orioles later commemorated the event with a flag at the top of the bleachers where the ball left the park, simply saying "HERE."

SEPTEMBER 22, 1966 – Twenty-year-old Jim Palmer pitched a complete game as the Orioles clinch their first American League pennant with a 6-1 win at Kansas City. Palmer won 268 games and three Cy Young Awards in a 19-year career with the Orioles on his way to the Hall of Fame.

1966 – "Would You Believe 4 Straight?" The Orioles stunned the baseball world by sweeping the favored Los Angeles Dodgers in the World Series. Frank Robinson won the American League triple crown (.316-49-122). Frank, Brooks Robinson, and Boog Powell finished 1-2-3 in the American League MVP voting.

1968 – Longtime minor league manager Earl Weaver was added to the coaching staff at the beginning of the season and, on July 11, was named manager of the Orioles. He went on to post a 1,480-1,060 record in 17 seasons before being elected to the Hall of Fame.

1969-71 – Pitching, three-run homers, and defense stamp Weaver's Orioles, as they captured three straight American League East titles, a trio of AL pennants, and the 1970 World Series. Brooks Robinson earned the nickname "Hoover" from future teammate Lee May after showing off his defensive skills in the 1970 series triumph over the Reds.

1973-74 – The Orioles won back-to-back AL East titles, giving them five division titles in six years. However, they were beaten by Oakland in the American League Championship Series both years.

JUNE 15, 1976 – Hank Peters, in his first year as Orioles general manager, began to remake the club with a 10-player trade with New York. Future Orioles Hall of Fame members Scott McGregor, Tippy Martinez, and Rick Dempsey came from the Yankees; catcher Elrod Hendricks, who later will be traded and return twice more, was among those sent to New York.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

SEPTEMBER 18, 1977 – Memorial Stadium was filled with 51,798 fans on "Thanks, Brooks Day," celebrating the end of the third baseman's 23-year career, all with the Orioles.

JUNE 22, 1979 – Doug DeCinces' two-out, two-run homer in the bottom of the ninth innning capped a monumental comeback against Detroit and gave birth to "Orioles Magic."

1979 – The Orioles won the American League pennant for the fifth time and took a 3-1 lead over Pittsburgh in the World Series. But the Pirates' "fam-i-lee" came back to win the last three games and the World Championship.

NOVEMBER 1, 1979 – American League owners approved the August sale of the Orioles to Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams. The purchase ended both local and public ownership of the club.

AUGUST 10, 1981 – Cal Ripken, Jr. made his Major League debut, scoring the winning run as a 12th-inning pinch-runner vs. Kansas City at Memorial Stadium.

1981 – The Orioles' 59-46 record was the best in the American League, but not good enough for the playoffs. Following a mid-year strike, baseball decided to play the season in two halves and the Orioles finished second to New York and Milwaukee in the two halves.

OCTOBER 1-3, 1982 – The Orioles, three games behind Milwaukee with four games to play heading into a final weekend series with the Brewers, took the first three games at Memorial Stadium to force a tie for first. The Brewers spoiled the comeback with a 10-2 win in the season finale. Earl Weaver, who two months earlier had announced retirement at the end of the season, was saluted by 51,462 fans in an emotional celebration and farewell following the game.

1983 – The Orioles lost the first game of the American League Championship Series before coming back to beat the Chicago White Sox in three straight games.They lost the World Series opener to the Philadelphia Phillies before coming back to win four straight for their third World Championship. Cal Ripken, Jr. was named AL MVP (.318-27-102) in a close race over teammate Eddie Murray (.306-33-111).

1988 – The Orioles lost a Major League-record 21 consecutive games to start the season.

MAY 2, 1988 – Returning home to Memorial Stadium with a 1-23 record, the Orioles played before 50,402 fans on a Monday night. In a dramatic pre-game announcement, Governor William Donald Schaefer announced that Orioles owner Edward Bennett Williams and the Maryland Stadium Authority agreed on a 15-year lease for a new ballpark to be constructed at Camden Yards for the 1992 season.

DECEMBER 1988 – Investor Eli S. Jacobs bought the Orioles from the estate of Edward Bennett Williams, who passed away in August.

1989 – "Why Not?" is the rallying cry of the young Orioles, who improbably led the AL East into September. They eventually lost at Toronto on the next-to-last day of the season, giving the Blue Jays the division crown.

OCTOBER 6, 1991 – After 38 years, the Memorial Stadium era ended as the Orioles played their last game on 33rd Street. Cal Ripken, Jr. – who added his second MVP Award to the All-Star Game MVP trophy he won mid-season – hit into a game-ending double play, but the 7-1 loss to Detroit did not diminish an emotional "Field of Dreams" celebration afterward as more than 100 former Orioles returned in uniform to take their old positions one last time before 50,700 fans.

APRIL 6, 1992 – Oriole Park at Camden Yards ushered in a new era of "retro ballparks" and the Orioles beat the Indians, 2-0, on Rick Sutcliffe's complete game.The ballpark, on the western edge of downtown, helped revitalize the neighborhood and earned wide acclaim for its architectural design and fan-friendly features.

JULY 13, 1993 – Oriole Park hosted the city's second All-Star Game, following a week-long "All-Star Fan Fest," the first of its kind.

AUGUST 2, 1993 – Baltimore attorney Peter Angelos led a group of investors – most of whom were Baltimoreans – in buying the Orioles at an auction from Eli S. Jacobs. American League owners approved the sale on October 4.

SEPTEMBER 6, 1995 – The Iron Man topped the Iron Horse: Cal Ripken, Jr. surpassed a record once thought unbeatable, playing in his 2,131st consecutive game to pass Lou Gehrig's all-time record. Ripken's homer in the game helped beat the Angels, 4-2.

1995 – The Orioles drew 3,098,475 fans in the strike-shortened season to lead the American League in attendance for the first time in their history. They went on to lead the league in attendance for four straight years.

SEPTEMBER 6, 1996 – Future Hall of Famer Eddie Murray, who returned to the club in a mid-season trade with Cleveland, hit his 500th career home run into the right field seats at Camden Yards.

1996 – A Major League-record 10 different Orioles hit at least 10 home runs during the season as the Orioles broke New York's (AL) 35-year-old mark for home runs by a team. The Orioles advanced to the playoffs as the "Wild Card" team, finishing second in the AL East. They beat Cleveland in the American League Division Series before the Yankees ended the Orioles postseason hopes in the ALCS.

1997 – The Orioles went wire-to-wire to win the AL East. They beat Seattle in the Division Series before falling in six games to Cleveland in the ALCS.

SEPTEMBER 20, 1998 – Cal Ripken, Jr. ended his consecutive game streak at 2,632, sitting out the Orioles' final home game of the season at Camden Yards vs. the New York Yankees. Ryan Minor started in his place at third base.

APRIL 15, 2000 – Cal Ripken, Jr. singled at Minnesota's Metrodome off Hector Carrasco for his 3,000th career hit, the first Oriole and 24th player to reach that milestone.

OCTOBER 6, 2001 – Having announced in May his plans to retire at season's end, Cal Ripken, Jr. played his last game as an Oriole before 48,807 fans at Camden Yards. His 21-year career resulted in a first-ballot election to the Hall of Fame.

JULY 31, 2006 – The Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, a regional television channel owned primarily by the Orioles, began 24-hour programming. The network is the rightsholder for both Orioles and Washington Nationals games.

NOVEMBER 12, 2008 – The Orioles unveiled their new road uniform with a script "Baltimore" across the chest. The Orioles' road uniform had featured a script "Orioles" across the chest since 1973.

OCTOBER 5, 2012 – The Orioles and Rangers met in the first American League Wild Card "play-in" game in Arlington. The Orioles won 5-1 to advance to the ALDS, where they fell in five games to the Yankees.

2013 – Chris Davis homered for the 51st time on September 17 at Boston, breaking Brady Anderson's club record set in 1996. Davis added two more before season's end, finishing with 53. The Orioles finished with a .991 fielding percentage, the best in Major League history.

SEPTEMBER 16, 2014 – With an 8-2 victory over the Toronto Blue Jays, the Orioles secured their ninth AL East Dvision title in team history, marking the third time the club had clinched in Baltimore, the first time since 1979, and the first division clinch with a win in Baltimore since 1969.

OCTOBER 5, 2014 – The Orioles swept the Detroit Tigers with a 2-1 victory in Game 3 of the American League Division Series to advance to the ALCS for the first time since 1997, where they fell to the Kansas City Royals in four games.

APRIL 29, 2015 – Citing the need for local resources to be better utilized during a period of unrest in Baltimore, the Orioles played an unprecedented game without fans against the Chicago White Sox after closing the contest to the public. The Orioles went on to win, 8-2.

JUNE 16, 2015 – Seven different Orioles combined to slug a club-record eight home runs against the Philadelphia Phillies, surpassing the previous club mark of seven. Chris Davis' fourth inning blast was his seventh career home run to land on Eutaw Street, the most such home runs in Oriole Park history by an individual player. He hit his eighth career Eutaw Street home run on August 14, 2015 vs. Oakland, and has 10 career Eutaw Street home runs.

JUNE 28, 2015 – In the second game of a doubleheader against Cleveland, the Orioles recorded their 5,000th regular season victory in club history.

AUGUST 1, 2015 – Outfielder Gerardo Parra became the 1,000th player to appear in a game for the Orioles since the team moved to Baltimore in 1954.

OCTOBER 4, 2016 – The Orioles advanced to postseason play for the third time in five seasons, and met the Toronto Blue Jays in the American League Wild Card Game. The Blue Jays defeated the Orioles, 5-2, in 11 innings at Rogers Centre.

AUGUST 5, 2017 – The Orioles reached 10,000 regular season home runs in Orioles history (since 1954) against Detroit, when Tim Beckham connected for a solo home run in the eighth inning off of Edward Mujica.

ORIOLES IN THE NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

There are currently six players and/or managers enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, N.Y. as Orioles (induction year in parenthesis):

Cal Ripken, Jr., SS (2007)
Eddie Murray, 1B (2003)
Earl Weaver, Manager (1996)
Jim Palmer, RHP (1990)
Brooks Robinson, 3B (1983)
Frank Robinson, RF (1982)

In 2007, Cal Ripken, Jr. received 98.53 percent of the vote total (537 of the 545 ballots cast) by eligible members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. At the time, it was the third-highest percent of the vote total in the history of the Hall of Fame, behind only Tom Seaver (98.84% in 1992) and Nolan Ryan (98.79% in 1999).

All five players to be inducted into the Hall of Fame as Orioles were elected in their first year of eligibility (Earl Weaver was selected as a manager by the Veterans Committee).

Additionally, there are 14 other modern-day players, managers, and front office executives with ties to the Orioles organization that have been inducted into the Hall of Fame (induction year in parenthesis):

Vladimir Guerrero, RF (2018)
Jim Thome, 1B (2018)
Tim Raines, Sr., LF (2017)
John Schuerholz, Executive (2017)
Roberto Alomar, 2B (2011)
Pat Gillick, Executive (2011)
Whitey Herzog, Manager (2010)
Dick Williams, Manager (2008)
Lee MacPhail, Executive (1998)
Reggie Jackson, RF (1993)
Hoyt Wilhelm, RHP (1985)
Luis Aparicio, SS (1984)
George Kell, 3B (1983)
Robin Roberts, RHP (1976

In addition to the nine former Orioles players that have been inducted as members of other organizations, three executives and two managers that have spent time with the Orioles have also been enshrined in Cooperstown:

Pat Gillick, who played for the Orioles as a minor leaguer and later served as General Manager of the Orioles from 1995-98, was elected by the Veterans Committee and was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2011.

Dick Williams, who had three different tenures as a player with the Orioles in the late 1950s and early 1960s, was named a 2008 inductee to the Hall of Fame as a manager after managing 21 years in the Major Leagues with six different teams, winning four league titles and two world championships.

Lee MacPhail, who served as General Manager of the Orioles from 1959-65, was inducted into the Hall of Fame as an executive by the Veterans Committee in 1998. His son, Andy, would serve as the President of Baseball Operations with the Orioles from 2007-11.

Whitey Herzog was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame as a manager, but played for the Orioles from from 1961-62.

John Schuerholz, a member of the Orioles front office from 1966-68, was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame by the Today's Game Era Committee as part of the 2017 class. Schuerholz currently serves as vice chairman of the Atlanta Braves and spent 26 years as a Major League Baseball general manager from 1982-2007 with the Kanas City Royals and Braves.

NATIVE MARYLANDERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

Currently, 10 members of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum have been born in Maryland: John Schuerholz (Baltimore), Cal Ripken, Jr. (Havre de Grace), Frank "Home Run" Baker (Trappe), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing), George Herman "Babe" Ruth (Baltimore), Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Al Kaline (Baltimore), Vic Willis (Elkton), and Bowie Kuhn (Takoma Park).

Additionally, of the nine members of the Hall of Fame to be born in Maryland, four once played for the Orioles. Cal Ripken, Jr. played for Baltimore (1981-2001), while Frank "Home Run" Baker (1907), Lefty Grove (1920-24), and Babe Ruth (1914) all played for the International League Orioles.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

In addition to longtime Orioles voice Chuck Thompson, four other Orioles broadcasters have won the Ford C. Frick Award: Ernie Harwell ('54-'59), Herb Carneal ('57-'61), Bob Murphy ('60-'61), and Jon Miller ('83-'96).

1983	St. Louis Cardinals 4, Orioles 1
1990	Orioles vs. Montreal Expos, rained out
1998	Orioles 7, Toronto Blue Jays 1
2007	Orioles 13, Toronto Blue Jays 7

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in 1977 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of two former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections under the direction of their Hall of Fame Committee.

Candidates may be elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame through two channels: the regular vote by a panel of some 80 people, comprising sportswriters, broadcasters, Oriole Advocates, and Orioles personnel; or by a vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, Oriole Advocates, and the Orioles front office.

Procedures for election to the Orioles Hall of Fame are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75 percent of ballots cast. All candidates must have served a minimum of three full seasons with the Orioles. To be eligible for regular election, a player, manager or coach must have been active in that capacity within the last 15 years, but ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year. For consideration by the veterans committee, formed in 1989, a candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 15 years.

Last inducted into the Orioles Hall of Fame was former Orioles third baseman Melvin Mora in 2015. Mora played nine and a half seasons with the Orioles from 2000-2009, compiling a .280 batting average and 158 home runs. His 808 games played at third base are second only to Brooks Robinson on the club's all-time list. In 2004, Mora set the Orioles' single-season record with a .340 batting average, while also posting career-highs in home runs (27) and RBI (104). A two-time All-Star, Mora also won a Silver Slugger Award and was twice named AL Player of the Month.

Additionally, the former left field platoon duo of John Lowenstein and Gary Roenicke were enshrined as selections of the Veteran's Committee in 2015. The left-handed hitting Lowenstein and right-handed hitting Roenicke split playing time in left field for the Orioles from 1979-1985 under the direction of manager Earl Weaver. The duo combined to hit 171 home runs and registered 574 RBI in the seven seasons they played together for the Orioles. In their first season platooning in left, they combined for 36 home runs and 98 RBI, helping the Orioles win the 1979 American League pennant.

The Orioles Hall of Fame currently has 55 former players, coaches, and managers.

V- Veterans Committee Selection

HERB ARMSTRONG AWARD WINNER

In 1995, the Oriole Advocates established the Herb Armstrong Award to honor non-uniformed personnel who have represented the Orioles for at least five years and made a significant contribution to the ballclub, the community, or the sport of baseball. The award is named after the beloved former educator, professional baseball player, manager, and longtime official for both the Orioles' International League and American League clubs who dedicated nearly 70 years of his life to the people of Baltimore, his adopted hometown. Winners are selected by the Orioles Hall of Fame Veterans Committee and honored during the Orioles Hall of Fame Weekend ceremonies.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

"WILD BILL" HAGY AWARD

On August 20, 2007, the Orioles lost one of their most passionate fans with the passing of William G. "Wild Bill" Hagy. Leading cheers from "The Roar from 34" at Memorial Stadium, "Wild Bill" became a Baltimore institution, contorting his body to spell out "O-R-I-O-L-E-S" from the upper deck – and sometimes coming down to lead the crowd in cheers from atop the dugout.

Upon his passing, the Orioles and the Oriole Advocates announced the creation of an award to honor the team's top fans, to be named The Wild Bill Hagy Award. The award will expand the Orioles Hall of Fame categories to include fans who have demonstrated an exceptional commitment in support of the team in the tradition of Wild Bill, who rooted for the club year in and year out.

Appropriately, Hagy was named the first recipient of the award.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLE

Infielder Jonathan Schoop was voted the winner of the 2017 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award by members of the local media. Schoop finished the season batting .293/.338/.503 (182-for-622) with 35 doubles, 32 home runs, 105 RBI, and 92 runs scored, having set career-highs in hits, home runs, runs, and RBI. Schoop was named AL Player of the Week for the week of July 17-23, hitting .433/.438/.800 (13-for-30) with two doubles, three home runs, eight runs, and 16 RBI over seven games; his 16 RBI led the Majors and his three home runs were tied for the most in the AL during the week. He posted a career-high 26-game on-base streak from April 12-May 12 when he hit .344/.385/.613 (32-for-93) with 10 doubles, five home runs, 14 runs, 17 RBI, four walks, and four hit by pitches. Schoop was selected to the 2017 All-Star Game, his first career All-Star selection, going 1-for-1 with a double and run scored. He established an O's record for RBI by a second baseman and his 32 homers were also a team record for a second baseman, breaking his own record of 25 in 2016.

The MVO Award was initiated when the Orioles returned to the Majors in 1954. A decade ago it was renamed in memory of Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who covered the Orioles for The Baltimore Sun for 27 years. The award winner is selected through a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the Orioles on a regular basis. There have been four ties, and no award was given in 1994. Thirteen players - Eddie Murray (seven), Cal Ripken, Jr. (four), Brooks Robinson (four), Rafael Palmiero (three), Frank Robinson (three), Ken Singleton (three), and Chris Davis, Adam Jones, Stu Miller, Jim Palmer, Boog Powell, Brian Roberts, and Miguel Tejada (two) - have won the award more than once.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS
EARL WEAVER—4

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown in August 1996, Earl Weaver currently ranks 26th in victories and his .583 winning percentage (1,480-1,060) over 17 seasons—all in Baltimore—ranks eighth on the all-time list of those who managed 10-or-more seasons in the Majors.

Weaver was a minor league second baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later. He came up to the Orioles as a first base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won six AL East titles, four AL pennants, and one World Series, beating the Cincinnati Reds in 1970. Weaver's Orioles won 100 games or more five times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors three times.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended one game shy of another AL East title when the Orioles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1½ years before retiring for good. The only time in his 17 seasons as a manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

Weaver passed away on January 19, 2013, at age 82. His widow, Marianna, lives in Pembroke Pines, Fla.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS
BROOKS ROBINSON—5

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive Opening Day games. He won the American League Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and holds the record for most Gold Gloves by a position player with 16. His election to Baseball's Hall of Fame (in his first year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Robinson played in 18 All-Star games. He trails only Cal Ripken, Jr. among the Orioles' all-time leaders in games, at-bats, hits, doubles, RBI, runs, total bases, and extra-base hits. In addition to his American League MVP Award in 1964 and his World Series MVP Award in 1970, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 and was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in 1960, 1962, 1964, and co-winner in 1971 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an American League player in 1977. In 2016, Robinson was honored at the annual Rawlings Gold Glove Award ceremony with a Lifetime Achievement Award.

Robinson holds six Major League fielding records and seven American League records for third basemen, including 2,697 putouts. He is 14th on the all-time list of games played (fourth in the AL) and fourth in games played with one team.

A native of Little Rock, Ark., Robinson and his wife, Connie, have four children. They split their time living in the northern Baltimore suburbs and in Southern California.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS
CAL RIPKEN, JR.—8

Baseball's all-time Iron Man, Cal Ripken, Jr. spent his entire 21-year career with the Orioles and was inducted into Baseball's Hall of Fame in 2007 in his first year of eligibility. He is one of only 10 players in history with both 400 HR and 3,000 hits, along with Hank Aaron, Adrián Beltré, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray, Stan Musial, Rafael Palmeiro, Alex Rodriguez, Dave Winfield, and Carl Yastrzemski. In 2001, his final season, he was elected to his 19th All-Star Game, breaking the AL record for most times as an All-Star – a record previously held by Brooks Robinson. He earned two All-Star Game MVP Awards (1991 and 2001), two American League MVP Awards (1983 and 1991), American League Rookie of the Year honors (1982), two Gold Gloves, and eight Silver Slugger awards, all at shortstop. Ripken was named Most Valuable Oriole four times, twice sharing the award with Eddie Murray.

Ripken will be most remembered for topping the said-to-be-unbreakable record for consecutive games played set by Lou Gehrig, passing Gehrig's mark of 2,130 games on September 6, 1995. Ripken went on to play in 2,632 consecutive games before sitting on September 20, 1998.

Following the 1999 season, he was named as one of two shortstops (with Ernie Banks) on Major League Baseball's All-Century Team, selected by fans and an expert panel. Extremely active in community endeavors, he won the Roberto Clemente Award (1992) and the initial Bart Giamatti Caring Award (1990), among many other honors.

Since his playing career ended in 2001, Ripken has focused his attention on growing the game at the grassroots level. Through his business, Ripken Baseball, and his family's nonprofit organization, the Cal Ripken, Sr. Foundation, he is bringing the game to kids across the country. Ripken Baseball operates three Ripken Experience complexes in his hometown of Aberdeen, Md., Myrtle Beach, S.C., and Pigeon Forge, Tenn. The Cal Ripken, Sr. Foundation has built over 75 Youth Development Parks, multi-purpose turf fields, in areas of need across the country. In 2015, Ripken was named Major League Baseball Special Advisor on Youth Programs and Outreach by Commissioner Robert D. Manfred.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS
FRANK ROBINSON—20

Frank Robinson's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all-time in 10 categories. He hit 586 home runs, 10th on the all-time list. He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player (1966-71), coach (1979-80 and 85-87), manager (1988-91), and assistant general manager (1991-95).

The trade that brought Robinson from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the American League and World Series MVP in his first season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series four times in his six seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the 1971 season, he became the first to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Robinson was the National League Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and is the only player to win MVP honors in both leagues (1961 NL, 1966 AL). He played in 11 All-Star Games and was MVP of the 1971 Midsummer Classic. While still an active player, he became the first black manager in Major League history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. In addition to the Indians (1975-77), he managed the San Francisco Giants (1981-84), the Orioles (1988-89), and the Montreal Expos-Washington Nationals (2002-06).

Robinson was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 1982. He lives with his wife, Barbara, in Los Angeles. They have two children.

On February 2, 2015, Robinson was named by Baseball Commissioner Robert D. Manfred, Jr. as Senior Advisor and the new Honorary President of the American League.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS
JIM PALMER—22

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Jim Palmer won 268 games in a 19-year career, all of it with Baltimore. He won three Cy Young Awards in a four-year span (1973, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is fourth on the all-time list among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched in the Play Index Era (1913-2017).

Palmer won 20 games in a season eight times, one of only six pitchers who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to accomplish the feat. He put that string together in a nine-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of three decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles' first four pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 postseason appearances. He was a six-time All-Star and was the American League's starting pitcher four times.

Palmer was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame on the first ballot in January 1990. He is in his 26th season as an analyst on Orioles televised games, and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN. On January 12, 2012, Palmer was awarded the Player Lifetime Achievement Award by the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation.

Palmer and his wife, Susan, live in Palm Beach, Fla. and Corona del Mar, Calif. with their son, Spencer. His oldest daughter, Jamie, lives in Cotuit, Mass., with her husband, Paul. Palmer's younger daughter, Kelly, lives in Trophy Club, Texas, with her husband, David, and 10-year-old twins, 11 on May 1, Maxine and Henri.

EDDIE MURRAY—33

Eddie played 12½ of his 21 seasons with the Orioles and was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 2003. He spent his first 12 years with the Orioles and rejoined the team in 1996, becoming the 15th player to reach the 500-home run plateau. Murray, Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Rafael Palmeiro, and Alex Rodriguez are the only players with 500 homers and 3,000 hits.

A model of consistency, he drove in at least 75 runs in each of his first 20 Major League seasons, a feat unmatched. He has more RBI than any switch-hitter in history and ranks ninth all-time in RBI. Murray was named to eight All-Star teams, seven as an Oriole, and batted .300 or better seven times, including five times as an Oriole. He won the Orioles' "triple crown" five times, leading the club in average, homers, and RBI. He played at least 150 games in 16 seasons, the second most in history behind Pete Rose. He also appeared in 2,413 games as a first baseman, the most by a first baseman in Major League history.

Murray broke in as the American League Rookie of the Year in 1977. He was named Most Valuable Oriole seven times (twice sharing the award with Ripken).

Like Frank Robinson before him, Murray's Oriole number was retired when he was traded to the Los Angeles Dodgers. He also played for the New York Mets, Cleveland Indians, and Los Angeles Angels, and was an Orioles coach for four seasons, 1998-2001. He also served as the hitting coach for the Cleveland Indians and Los Angeles Dodgers. A three-time Gold Glove winner, he holds the Major League record for games played and career assists by a first baseman. Murray has two daughters, Jordan and Jessica, and lives in his hometown of Los Angeles.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

BALTIMORE ORIOLES

THE BALLPARK THAT FOREVER CHANGED BASEBALL™

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

When Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened on April 6, 1992, a new era of Major League Baseball began. The park was brand new, but still old-fashioned. State-of-the-art, yet quaint. At less than a day old, it was already a classic.

Oriole Park at Camden Yards inspired a generation of ballpark construction. No longer would communities across America build multipurpose stadiums devoid of character, surrounded by vast parking lots. Ballparks would now be created to nestle neatly into existing and historic neighborhoods and play key roles in the revitalization of urban America. In the 26 years that followed, nearly 70 million fans have attended games at the ballpark.

Oriole Park at Camden Yards captured the nation's attention from day one and in the seasons that followed, has served as the standard by which all new ballparks are measured. Citizens of Baltimore and throughout Maryland, as well as Orioles fans everywhere, should take great pride in the fact that their team makes its home in The Ballpark That Forever Changed Baseball™.

THE HISTORY

Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the beautiful baseball-only facility in downtown Baltimore, became the official home of the Orioles on April 6, 1992. The construction of the park was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began on June 28, 1989, in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the city's Inner Harbor and only two blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary slugger, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street and Little Paca, now center field at Oriole Park. The ballpark originally seated 48,041 (and now seats 45,971), and the project cost was approximately $110 million. It was designed by the Kansas City architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata + Kassabaum (HOK) with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA).

Working under contract to HOK were the urban design firm of RTKL, the landscape architecture firm of Wallace, Roberts and Todd, and the engineering firms of Bliss and Nyitray; Rummel, Klepper and Kahl; and Kidde Consultants, Inc. Working under contract to the Orioles were the interior design firm of Forte Design and the graphic design firm of David Ashton and Associates.

Oriole Park is state-of-the-art, yet unique, traditional, and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the Upper Deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural grass turf are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900s. Ebbets Field (Brooklyn), Shibe Park (Philadelphia), Fenway Park (Boston), Crosley Field (Cincinnati), Forbes Field (Pittsburgh), Wrigley Field (Chicago), and The Polo Grounds (New York) were among the ballparks that served as powerful influences in the design of Oriole Park.

BALTIMORE'S ORIOLE

America's early colonists noticed a bird whose male bore the black and orange colors of Lord Baltimore, Maryland's founder. It was called a Baltimore oriole until the 1960s, when it was observed to interbreed with a bird called Bullock's oriole. The American Ornithologists' Union declared both would be considered a single species: Northern oriole. But later studies showed that, while the two birds interbreed, the offspring rarely pass along their genes. In 1994, the Baltimore oriole recovered its status as a species.

ACCESSIBILITY/PARKING

Oriole Park is easily reached via rail, bus, and subway lines, as well as four major highways (I-95, I-83, I-70, and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway). The MARC train and light rail trains both have stops directly on site. Approximately 4,000 parking spaces are located south of the park and numerous spaces are located in areas within walking distance of the ballpark.

THE PLAYING FIELD

DIMENSIONS: For Oriole Park's first nine seasons, outfield dimensions were 333 feet to left field, 364 feet to left center, 400 feet to center, 373 feet to right center and 318 feet to right field. Prior to the 2001 season, in conjunction with extensive renovations to the ballpark's playing surface and drainage system, the Orioles reconfigured the ballpark with outfield dimensions that were up to seven feet larger than those used since Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened in 1992. However, it was found that the new dimensions did not significantly improve sight lines for fans and adversely affected the viewing angle of the batter's eye wall.

As a result, the ballpark was returned to its original dimensions before the 2002 season. The changes included moving home plate approximately seven feet closer to the outfield, to its original spot 59 feet from the backstop. In addition, the entire field was shifted several degrees to the first base side and both the left field and right field foul poles were repositioned to their original locations. The foul line measurements decreased from 320 feet to 318 feet in right field and from 337 to 333 feet in left field. The center field distance decreased from 406 to 400 feet and the deepest part of the ballpark, in left-center field, decreased from 417 to 410 feet. The shorter dimension in the right field corner is off-set by a 21-foot high wall, which extends 100 feet from the right field line toward center. The fence in the rest of the park is only seven feet high.

FOUL POLES: When the Orioles moved to Oriole Park at Camden Yards for the 1992 season, the right field foul pole that had been used for 37 seasons at Memorial Stadium was brought with. The foul pole was affixed atop the tall wall in right field in the Flag Court. Prior to the 2001 season, the Orioles replaced the original Oriole Park left field foul pole with the left field pole that had been used throughout their stay at Memorial Stadium. At 70 feet high, the new/old foul pole is 20 feet shorter than the previously used pole and requires a more modest support structure, which allows more fans in seats in the Lower, Club, and Upper Deck levels to have an unobstructed view of the field. The foul poles were returned to their original positions when the ballpark was reconfigured to its original dimensions after the 2001 season.

THE FIELD: The vibrant green field is made from 100% Kentucky bluegrass with a rubberized warning track perimeter of a natural surface composed of crushed stone, matching the brick color of the Warehouse. The field is 16 feet below street level and is comprised of a sophisticated irrigation and drainage system below natural grass turf. It is designed to reduce the frequency of rainouts by shortening the length of baseball's most exasperating feature, the rain delay. The field's system makes it possible to get the field ready for play within a half an hour after the end of a heavy rainstorm. The drainage system automatically removes as much as 75,000 gallons of rainwater from the field in an hour.

THE WAREHOUSE

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 439 feet from home plate. Built between 1898-1905, the Warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1,016 feet (but only 51 feet wide). It has been preserved and now provides unique office space for the Orioles as well as home for the banquet facilities, the ballpark's central kitchen, and space for ballpark operations. The Orioles' main ticket office operates out of the north end of the Warehouse. Dempsey's Brew Pub and Restaurant is located on the first floor of the Warehouse and is open year-round for lunch and dinner. Eutaw Street Market, a convenience store on the first floor of the Warehouse featuring grab-and-go sandwiches, drinks, and snacks is also open year-round.

The ballpark and Warehouse are separated by a 60-foot wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street. Open daily, Eutaw Street is home to plaques dedicated to members of the Orioles Hall of Fame, the Mid-Atlantic Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame, and the Maryland State Athletic Hall of Fame, and features markers of home runs to hit Eutaw Street. The Orioles Official Team Store is also located on the ground floor of the Warehouse on Eutaw Street.

SEATING

Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened with a seating capacity of 48,290 and over the years with renovations and installations of wider seats, the seating capacity decreased to 45,971. More than 400 seats are available to fans with disabilities in the equal access areas (EA) of the ballpark. Every aisle seat in the park includes an extra feature: a reproduction of the 125-year-old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890s, a National League team that won consecutive pennants in 1894-96.

The Lower Deck is comprised of 18,000 box seats between the foul poles. Behind the box seats are 6,400 terrace box and lower reserved seats. The Upper Deck contains 25 rows of seats (the first 12 are boxes, the last 13 are reserved seats) and has a gentle slope of 31 degrees (Memorial Stadium, like many parks, was 33 degrees). A roof covers half of the Upper Deck seating area.

The Mezzanine, or Club Level, stretches from the right field foul pole to left-center field and is accessible by escalators, elevators, stairs, and ramps. Waiter service is available at the seats, and behind the seating area on the Club Level concourse is a climate-controlled lounge with private dining and bar areas. Also on the Club Level are 65 luxury suites, with the ability to accommodate a variety of groups, from smaller gatherings with 14-18 guests to larger parties with 30-40 guests. While some of the suites are leased on a full or partial season basis, a number are available for individual game rentals. Three large party suites, named to honor Orioles legends – Brooks Robinson, Frank Robinson, and Jim Palmer – can accommodate groups of up to 75 people.

The 1,887 Eutaw Street Bleacher seats, among the most popular in the park, are located in right-center field. There are also Standing Room Only (SRO) tickets that go on sale in advance of sold out games. The SRO areas are found on the right field Flag Court and just above the visitor's bullpen in left field.

20TH ANNIVERSARY IMPROVEMENTS AND UPGRADES

As part of a continued commitment to honor the proud history of the franchise, and in conjunction with efforts to improve the design aesthetic and functionality of the ballpark, in 2012 the Orioles enhanced the fan experience at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The improvements and additions, highlighted by a newly renovated area to honor the greatest Orioles of all time inside the gates of the ballpark, were done to celebrate the 20th anniversary of Oriole Park.

Larger than life sculptures of the six Orioles who have their numbers retired and are National Baseball Hall of Fame members – Frank Robinson, Earl Weaver, Jim Palmer, Eddie Murray, Cal Ripken, Jr., and Brooks Robinson – were unveiled during the 2012 season. The bronze sculptures created by renowned Maryland sculptor Antonio Tobias "Toby" Mendez, are located in Orioles Legends Park. As with the Orioles Hall of Fame plaques on Eutaw Street, this area was renovated to allow fans access during non-gameday hours.

Along with the installation of the sculptures, the Orioles also completed additional upgrades to the Upper Deck, Main Concourse, Eutaw Street, Flag Court, and bullpen picnic grove at Oriole Park for the 2012 season.

The Orioles also added the Roof Deck, a new outfield overlook on top of the batter's eye wall in center field, featuring casual seating, a bar, and seating. This area was previously inaccessible to fans. Additionally, as a part of MSA's restoration of the B&O Warehouse brick work, a replica of the original canopy was added to the Warehouse to shelter portable concessions and additional seating, as well as fans on Eutaw Street searching for shade or to escape inclement weather

The out-of-town scoreboard on the right field wall was also modified to reduce the height of the wall and thus improve views of the game from the Flag Court and Eutaw Street.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE TO ORIOLE PARK

Since Oriole Park opened in 1992, many exciting improvements have been made to help enhance the "Oriole Park Experience"…

SECURITY & SAFETY:

- Prior to the 2018 season, protective netting was extended to expand from Section 16 through Section 58.
- Prior to the 2015 season, Major League Baseball implemented mandatory metal detection screening of all fans prior to entry at each MLB ballpark, which included walk-through magnetometers or hand-held metal detectors at each entrance.
- Smoking was banned entirely at Oriole Park prior to the 2013 season.
- Smoking was banned in the seating bowl in 1993.

THE FIELD:

- Prior to the 2017 season, approximately 105,000 square feet of sand-based sod playing surface was replaced with 100 percent Kentucky bluegrass from Tuckahoe Turf Farms in Hammonton, N.J.
- Prior to the 2013 season, the Orioles replaced the original rubberized warning track from 1992 with a natural surface composed of crushed stone, matching the color of the brick that appears throughout the ballpark and on the Warehouse.
- In 2008, the sod was replaced with a sand-based blend of Kentucky bluegrass that is genetically darker in color and more durable than the version previously used at the ballpark.
- Prior to the 2006 season, all new irrigation heads were installed on the field.
- Following the 2000 season, the ballpark's infield and outfield were rebuilt, replacing the dirt, sand mix, sod and drainage.
- In 1999, the warning track surrounding the playing field was painted a shade of brown to more closely match the color of the infield dirt and to complement the colors of the B&O Warehouse.

AROUND THE BALLPARK:

- In May 2016, the Orioles, the MSA, and the National Wildlife Federation and its Maryland affiliate, the National Aquarium, opened The Oriole Garden, a native plant garden near the Eutaw Street entrance that attracts orioles, birds, and butterflies.
- The escalator near Gate B was completely replaced prior to the 2012 season.
- Before the 2012 season, the Orioles and MSA improved the Main Concourse with new flooring and wall coverings.
- Additionally prior to the 2012 season, the Club Level and Suites were refurbished, and alcoves and lounges were named and decorated in themes making it easier for fans to meet friends at areas such as the "All-Star Lounge," "Hall of Fame Lounge," and "MVPs Lounge." New displays were also constructed on the Club Level with memorabilia, awards, and trophies to commemorate each Orioles team beginning in 1954.
- In 2011, the Orioles and their concessionaire, Delaware North Sportservice, overhauled the Main Concourse concessions.
- The Home Plate Plaza Lobby, Home Plate Lounge, and Press Levels were renovated in the 2009 offseason.
- Prior to the 2004 season, the concrete wall behind home plate was replaced with brick, in keeping with OPACY aesthetic.
- Two 7.5-foot rotational signs were also added to the wall behind home plate before the 2004 season.
- In May of 2003, the memorial wall at the south end of the Eutaw Street Warehouse was opened and dedicated to honor Maryland residents who lost their lives in all of our nation's wars.
- Prior to and during the early part of the 2000 season, the entrance area to the Home Plate Plaza Lobby was redesigned to provide a new floor covering, new wall finishes, and redesigned elevators.
- In 2000, the first floor lobby of the Warehouse (333 W. Camden Street) was redesigned to provide improved traffic flow and accentuate the original structural and architectural elements of the Warehouse.
- Prior to the 2000 season, the fourth floor lobby of the Warehouse was refinished and improved to create a fresher, more enjoyable experience for those using party facilities and for Club Level ticket holders who use this entrance to the ballpark.
- Beginning in 1999, the Orioles offices in the B&O Warehouse underwent major renovations to give the offices a warmer look. In addition to redesigned offices, new artwork and artifacts were displayed in the lobby and in the glass entry doors.
- Prior to the 1999 season, an Upper Deck Fan Assistance Center was constructed in the Home Plate Elevator Lobby.
- Work began prior to the 2000 season to repaint the entire steel "superstructure" of the ballpark (completed that season).

SEATING:

- Prior to the 2011 season, drink rails were installed in portions of the Club Level down the left field line, as well as bistro tables facing the field on the left field Club Level and the Miller Lite Flite Deck in the corner of the right field Club Level.
- In 2011 at the request of the Orioles, the Club Level and Upper Deck at Camden Yards were furnished with wider seats that are more comfortable for fans. The seating capacity was thus reduced from 48,290 to 45,971.
- Concrete and seats throughout the ballpark were replaced following the 2009 and 2010 seasons as part of the Maryland Stadium Authority's deferred maintenance program. Cushions were also added to the lower level seats between the bases.
- Prior to 2010, all rows in the ballpark were switched from letters to numbers, to more clearly designate the number of rows from the field or the front of the Club and Upper Deck Levels.
- 6,200 seats in sections 16-58 were replaced prior to 2004 featuring chairs with higher backs, padding, and cupholders.
- Two rows of seats (72 total seats) were added at field level behind home plate prior to the 2004 season, while 10 seats were added to section 16 and 14 seats were added to section 58 at that time.

TECHNOLOGY:

- Prior to the 2017 season, LED lighting fixtures were installed at Oriole Park.
- Prior to the 2009 season, technological upgrades were made throughout the ballpark, by enhancing the control room, installing high-definition televisions throughout the ballpark, and improving the sound system in all areas of the ballpark.
- Prior to the 2008 season, the Orioles and MSA purchased a new video system, installing an LED video board, scoreboard, out-of-town scoreboard, and "ribbon" boards along the Club Level and Upper Deck fascia.
- Included in the improvements made during the 1999 season, the ticket reader system used at the turnstiles was upgraded. The ticket entrances were enlarged and the reader system itself was expanded to allow more types of tickets to be fed through the turnstile readers, providing fans a smoother, quicker entry to the ballpark.

BALLPARK TOURS

Oriole Park at Camden Yards tours continue to be a popular attraction for thousands of visitors to Baltimore. In 2017, more than 32,000 people toured the ballpark facility. Since 1992, more than one million fans have taken a tour of Oriole Park. Fans touring the facility visit the Legends Park, Suite Level, media levels, and dugout. Private tours, reserved in advance, are available year-round. Public tours are available between March and November. For tickets and schedule information, visit www.orioles.com or call 410-547-6234 or 888-848-BIRD (2473).

DISPLAYS THROUGHOUT THE BALLPARK HONOR VARIOUS ATHLETIC ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Orioles Hall of Fame: Located at the north end of the Warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard, plaques honor the members inducted annually and are similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown, N.Y. at the National Baseball Hall of Fame. They feature the Oriole Hall of Famer's likeness and a brief description of their accomplishments.

Orioles Retired Numbers: Four-foot monuments, located at the north end of the Warehouse, honor the uniform numbers worn by Earl Weaver (4), Brooks Robinson (5), Cal Ripken, Jr. (8), Frank Robinson (20), Jim Palmer (22), and Eddie Murray (33).

Mid-Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame: A tribute to baseball scouts over the years, plaques are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.

Maryland State Athletic Hall of Fame: The names of Marylanders who left their mark in athletic endeavors and have been inducted into the state's Athletic Hall of Fame are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.

Cal Ripken, Jr. Seat: To honor Ripken's 278th career homer, hit on July 15, 1993, which surpassed Ernie Banks' MLB record for home runs by a shortstop, the Orioles marked the spot where the ball landed (Section 86, Row 4, Seat 10) with an orange seat.

Eddie Murray Seat: To honor Murray's 500th career home run, hit on September 6, 1996, off Detroit's Felipe Lira, the Orioles installed an orange seat in the right field bleachers where the ball landed (Section 96, Row 7, Seat 23).

Eutaw Street Home Runs: Brass baseball plates are embedded into the Eutaw Street sidewalk marking the locations where home runs cleared the right field gate. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, team logo, distance the ball traveled, and date the home run was hit.

Plaques at Oriole Park: In ceremonies prior to Cal Ripken, Jr.'s final game on October 6, 2001, the Orioles unveiled a plaque in the first base dugout dedicated to Cal Ripken, Sr. It is inscribed: "Cal Ripken, Sr. Dedicated to a lifelong Oriole of thirty-six years, and one of the game's greatest teachers. Coach, manager, and devoted mentor to countless young Orioles, "Senior" dedicated his life to baseball and passed on his respect of the game to everyone he coached. He preached "perfect practice, makes perfect" and stressed the importance of being prepared, learning the "right way" and playing to the best of one's ability every inning of every game. We will always remember his devotion to the Orioles, his love of the game, and his many lessons…"

In honor of Earl Weaver's induction into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, a silver "4" and plaque identifying Weaver's years as manager was added to the Orioles' dugout wall in July 1996, near where the manager traditionally stands.

Relief pitcher Jesse Orosco made his 1,072nd career appearance on August 17, 1999, passing Dennis Eckersley for the Major League record for most games pitched. In honor of his accomplishment, the Orioles installed a plaque with Orosco's uniform number, 47, above the bench in the bullpen.

Plaques in the Oriole Park press box have been erected honoring the late Rex Barney, Orioles public address announcer for more than 25 years, and the late Monica Pence Barlow, the Orioles' public relations director and a member of the organization for 14 years. Additionally, a plaque in the first base camera well honors longtime team photographer Jerry Wachter.

ATTENDANCE INFORMATION

ATTENDANCE MILESTONES: The Orioles celebrated two attendance milestones in 2008. The first came on August 19, 2008, as the O's welcomed their 50 millionth fan at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Opened in 1992, Oriole Park was the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50-million fan milestone in the history of baseball, a record that stood until the San Francisco Giants broke the mark at AT&T Park during the 2015 season. In its first 17 seasons, Oriole Park at Camden Yards hosted the third-most fans in baseball, trailing only Dodger Stadium and Yankee Stadium.

Less than a week later, on August 23, 2008, the 100 millionth fan in franchise history entered the gates at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. In 64 seasons and 4,771 regular season dates between Memorial Stadium and Camden Yards, 119,177,655 fans have watched the Orioles play in Baltimore.

The Orioles have drawn a total of 69,332,067 fans in 2,055 dates in 26 seasons at Oriole Park, surpassing the total attendance from 1954 through 1991 at Memorial Stadium. In 38 seasons at the old ballpark on 33rd Street, the club drew 49,845,588 in 2,716 dates, an average of 18,353 fans per game. The Birds have averaged 33,738 fans per game in 2,055 dates at Oriole Park.

2017: The Orioles drew 2,028,424 fans to Camden Yards in 81 home dates, an average of 25,042 fans per game. The Orioles cracked the two-million mark for the 28th time in franchise history and the 22nd time since moving into Oriole Park. Baltimore had two home sellouts in 2017 and has now drawn 40,000 or more fans on 847 of 2,055 dates at Oriole Park.

LARGEST 3-DATE CROWD: The August 10-12, 2007, series against the Boston Red Sox shattered the attendance record for a three-date series at Oriole Park at Camden Yards by more than 2,000 fans. A total of 146,786 fans attended the three games, topping the previous mark of 144,784 set August 21-23, 1998, vs. Cleveland.

"QUICKEST TO" MILESTONES
3 million—66 home dates ('93, '97 & '98)
2 million—43 home dates ('94)
1 million—22 home dates ('94)

AMONG THE MAJOR LEAGUE LEADERS: The Orioles had never led the AL in total or average attendance until 1995, then did so for four consecutive years. The team has drawn three million or more fans in nine of the 24 non-strike shortened seasons at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

SMALLEST CROWDS: The smallest crowd for a game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards was 9,129 on April 12, 2010, against the Tampa Bay Rays. The smallest crowd ever for an Orioles home game was on August 17, 1972, when only 655 fans attended an afternoon make-up game against the Chicago White Sox at Memorial Stadium.

ZERO FANS: On April 29, 2015, the Orioles played a game against the Chicago White Sox at Oriole Park, which was closed to the public. The game was not considered in tallying the total season attendance and the date was not included in the average per game attendance.

50 MILLIONTH & 100 MILLIONTH FANS

The Orioles reached two major attendance milestones during the 2008 season. On August 19, the team welcomed Kevin Gracie, a law school student from Ellicott City, Md., as the designated 50 millionth person to attend a game at Oriole Park. Oriole Park became the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50-million fan milestone in the history of baseball, a record that stood until the San Francisco Giants broke the mark at AT&T Park in 2015.

Four days later, on August 23, the 100 millionth person to attend an Orioles home game in franchise history was welcomed at Oriole Park. Velma Greene, a middle school teacher from Harpers Ferry, W. Va., was designated as the milestone fan.

Since it ushered in a new era of ballpark design in 1992, Oriole Park at Camden Yards has been the standard-bearer for sports facilities in the United States, welcoming individuals from all 50 states and more than 100 countries. The city of Baltimore and the entire state of Maryland have derived significant economic impact totaling in the billions of dollars from the more than 69 million fans who have attended Orioles games over the last 26 seasons, as well as from the millions more who have participated in festivals, meetings, tours, and community events that have been held at the ballpark.

CONTACT INFORMATION

The general line for the Public Relations Department is 410-547-6150. During home games, the PR department can be reached in the press box at 410-547-6257. The PR department fax number is 410-547-6272. The PR Twitter account is @OriolesPR.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for full season or daily credentials must be submitted through the MLB Credentialing System at credentials.mlb.com. Media members who do not have an account on the MLB system should email Kailey Adams in the Public Relations Department at kadams@orioles.com. Credential requests for individual games must be submitted at least 24 hours in advance of the requested game to receive consideration. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering agencies and are non-transferable. Any unauthorized use will result in confiscation of the credential and ejection from Oriole Park. Those approved for credentials may pick them up at window six at Home Plate Will Call beginning four hours before game time. Credentials will only be released to each individual credential holder with a government-issued ID. Media may not pick up credentials on behalf of anyone else.

BALLPARK & PRESS LEVEL ACCESS

Media must access the ballpark via Home Plate Plaza, which is located on the southwestern side of Oriole Park between Gates D and E. Home Plate Plaza opens four hours before game time. Media will be required to show government-issued identification and provide an electronic signature to obtain their credentials. The press box is located on Level Two (Lower Press). Home and visiting radio and television stations broadcast from Level Three (Upper Press). Wireless Internet access is available on both levels of the press box, and login information to access is available throughout each level.

PARKING

Limited parking for media is available in Lots A and B/C off of Lee Street. TV trucks may park in the ENG Lot next to Lot A, but must contact the Public Relations Department in advance. Media must contact the Public Relations Department in advance to be added to the daily parking list. Due to limited availability, not all requests can be fulfilled.

PRESS DINING ROOM

Media with credentials issued by the Orioles, MLB, or BBWAA are invited to eat in the Press Dining Room on the Upper Press Level for a charge of $12 per person. Food service will begin two hours before first pitch and continue until one hour after the game begins unless otherwise announced. Light refreshments and beverages are available in the Dining Room through the seventh inning. Due to space limitations, only credentialed media and club employees with game-time duties may eat in the Dining Room. The Orioles are unable to accommodate guests in the Dining Room.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS

Only media with MLB, BBWAA, or properly marked, team-issued credentials have access to the clubhouses. Video cameras are permitted in the Orioles clubhouse prior to and after the game, but are restricted to tight interview shots. Tripods and still photography are not permitted without permission from the Public Relations Department. Cell phones may be used to record audio only. The Orioles clubhouse will open for media access at 3:10 p.m. for a 7:05 p.m. start at Oriole Park and close at 4:00 p.m. For day games, clubhouse times will be announced via @OriolesPR on Twitter. Both clubhouses will open within 10 minutes after the final out of each game. Media are only permitted within the locker room area of the clubhouse. The trainers' area, players' lounge, batting cages, kitchen, shower areas, and access hallways are off-limits to media at all times.

FIELD ACCESS

Credentialed media may access the field at Oriole Park by taking the Home Plate Plaza elevators to the Basement Level (Service Level) and walking through the Umpires' Tunnel between the home and visiting clubhouses. The field area is open to media from the time Home Plate Plaza opens until 45 minutes before game time, with the exception of special first pitch ceremonies (must obtain permission from Orioles PR). Media are asked to remain on the warning track and between the two dugouts at all times.

CELL PHONES

The use of cell phones to disseminate information via text, email, or any forms of social media within the Orioles clubhouse will result in the credential being revoked and ejection from the ballpark. Cell phones may not be used to capture photographs or video in the clubhouse at any time. Violators will lose clubhouse privileges. Cell phones may only be used to record audio.

INTERVIEW ROOM

Orioles manager Buck Showalter will be available to media in a group session before and after every home game. Pregame and postgame press conferences will take place in the Auxiliary Clubhouse off the Umpires' Tunnel unless previously announced on Twitter via @OriolesPR.

ORIOLES PUBLIC RELATIONS ON TWITTER

Media members may receive updates from the Orioles Public Relations Department via Twitter (@OriolesPR).

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers are not permitted on the field at any time during the game. Photo wells are located at each end of the home and visiting dugouts. Camera positions will be designated by the Orioles' Public Relations Department or team photographer. Photographers may work from the stands as long as they are not obstructing the view of fans, but they are not permitted in the first four rows behind home plate. Dugouts must be cleared 45 minutes before game time. No still photographers are permitted in either clubhouse without permission from the Public Relations Department of each team.

NO AUTOGRAPHS

Autograph seeking is strictly prohibited for credentialed media members. Any member of the media who requests an autograph will have his/her credential and press access revoked.

TELEVISION

ANNOUNCERS: Mike Bordick, Tom Davis, Rick Dempsey, Jim Hunter, Jim Palmer, Gary Thorne

MASN, the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, has been the exclusive television home for all Baltimore Orioles games since 2007. An independent regional sports network, MASN is owned by the Orioles and Washington Nationals, and provides unmatched access to the action on the field and inside the game.

Every available Orioles game is televised in high-definition on one of the network's two channels, MASN and MASN2, throughout an exclusive territory that covers a seven-state region from Harrisburg, Pa. to Charlotte, N.C. All of MASN's cable, satellite, and fiber optic distributors carry MASN and MASN2 on a consistent channel throughout the season. (Visit MASNsports.com for local listings.)

Along with their baseball coverage on the daily "Mid-Atlantic Sports Report", MASN also carries more than 200 NCAA Division I football and basketball games, featuring local colleges and top-ranked programs.

MASN also broadcasts the "O's Xtra" pre- and postgame shows, which include insight and analysis about upcoming matchups, highlights, player interviews, and the manager's press conferences. Fans can follow MASN via @masnOrioles on Twitter, on Facebook at facebook.com/masnorioles, and via @masnOrioles on Instagram. Roch Kubatko and Steve Melewski cover the team year-round on MASNsports.com and on Twitter at @masnRoch and @masnSteve.

RADIO

ANNOUNCERS: Joe Angel, Jim Hunter, Ben McDonald, Brian Roberts

Entercom's 105.7 The Fan serves as the flagship station of the seven-state, 40-station Orioles Radio Network. Fans can hear extensive coverage of all 162 regular season games, including pre- and postgame shows, as well as select Spring Training contests throughout the Orioles Radio Network.

Longtime Orioles Radio Network broadcaster Joe Angel will return for his 19th season and will be joined by veteran broadcaster Jim Hunter for most games. Former Orioles pitcher Ben McDonald will return to provide analysis for several games this season. Former Orioles second baseman Brian Roberts will also join the Orioles Radio Network as an analyst for select games.

In 2015, the Orioles' radio rights returned to 105.7 The Fan, which served as the broadcast home for the Orioles from 2007-10. Currently, 105.7 The Fan is one of the highest-rated sports talk radio stations in the United States.

In 2010, the Orioles entered a multi-year partnership with WSBA Radio to serve as their affiliate in York, Pa. In addition, members of the military stationed overseas have the opportunity to listen to Orioles games on the American Forces Radio Network.

JOE ANGEL

ORIOLES RADIO ANNOUNCER

Veteran broadcaster Joe Angel returns as the "Voice of the Orioles" on radio for his 19th season.

Angel, 69, was born in Bogotá, Colombia and did not speak English until the age of nine. He has broadcast Major League Baseball games for 42 years, including 18 seasons with the Orioles from 1988-90, 1992, and 2004-present. In addition to being the Voice of the Orioles, Angel has done play-by-play for the San Francisco Giants (1976-78, 2002-03), Oakland Athletics (1979-80), Minnesota Twins (1984-86), New York Yankees (1991), and the Florida Marlins (1993-2000). Angel also broadcasted games on ESPN during the 2001 season.

Angel's family immigrated to Chicago at age seven before moving to San Francisco when he was 15. He attended Galileo High School in San Francisco, where he played baseball and was a football teammate of O.J. Simpson.

He began his career in the Bay Area, calling Stanford University football and University of San Francisco basketball before breaking into MLB with the Giants in 1976.

While with the Giants on KSFO radio, Angel worked alongside Hall of Fame broadcasters Al Michaels and Lon Simmons. He then spent two years as the television play-by-play announcer for the Athletics before joining WCCO radio doing Twins broadcasts in 1984. Angel began his Orioles career in 1988 and spent four of the next five years in Baltimore, excluding a one-year stint with the Yankees in 1991. In 1993, he left to become the first voice of the Marlins, where he called games for eight years, including the Marlins' 1997 championship season. He then did play-by-play for ESPN regional telecasts before returning to call Giants games for two seasons.

In his four decades of radio work with MLB, Angel has broadcast two World Series, 44 postseason games, and seven no-hitters. His signature calls of "In the WIN column," "Wave it bye, bye" and "Hasta la vista pelota" are well-known to Orioles fans.

Angel and his wife, Antoinette, make their home in El Dorado Hills, Calif. They have three adult children: Tony, Natalie, and Jonathan; one granddaughter, Carsyn Angelina; and two grandsons, Jacob and Thomas.

MIKE BORDICK

MASN ANALYST

Orioles Hall of Famer Mike Bordick enters his seventh year as an analyst on the MASN broadcast team.

One of the best defensive players in club history, Bordick was inducted into the Orioles Hall of Fame in 2011 after spending six seasons with the club from 1997 to 2002. In his final season with the Orioles, Bordick had the best defensive season for a shortstop in Major League history, setting records for highest fielding percentage (.998), fewest errors (one), consecutive errorless games (110), and consecutive errorless chances (543). He still owns the fifth-highest fielding percentage (.982) among all MLB shortstops with at least 1,000 games played.

Bordick's 14-year Major League career also included time with the Athletics (1990-96), Mets (2000), and Blue Jays (2003).

Originally signed by the Athletics as a non-drafted free agent in 1986, Bordick appeared in three games for Oakland during the 1990 World Series. He also played in the 2000 World Series with the Mets after being traded from the Orioles that July, and was named to the American League All-Star team that year.

He spent the 2010-11 seasons as the Coordinator of Offensive Fundamentals for the Orioles' minor league system, and has continued to work as a Special Assignment Instructor when he is not in the broadcast booth.

Bordick attended the University of Maine, where he led the Bears to College World Series berths in two of his three seasons (1984-86). At the end of his playing career, he completed his bachelor's degree in kinesiology and physical education. Bordick and his wife, Monica, reside in Ruxton, Md. They have six children: Chandler, Dylan, Casey, Dawson, Wyatt, and Colton.

TOM DAVIS

MASN ANNOUNCER

Baltimore native Tom Davis enters his 48th year as a Baltimore sportscaster and his third as full time co-host of "O's Xtra," MASN's pregame and postgame shows. Davis has also hosted MASN's "Mid-Atlantic Sports Report" since March 2011, and previously spent 17 seasons hosting Orioles telecasts on Home Team Sports (HTS) from 1984 to 2000. A five-time winner of the Maryland Sportscaster of the Year Award, Davis began his career as a weekend sportscaster for WBAL-TV in the early 1970s. He also worked at WBAL Radio, had two stints at WCBM-AM, and spent 17 years as a sportscaster for the "Rouse & Company Show" on WQSR-FM.

His national sports broadcasting experience includes work with NBC-TV and NBC Radio, where he covered the NFL, 1987 Gator Bowl, and the 1988 Summer Olympics. He also did play-by-play for a number of college football bowl games for the Mutual Radio Network, and was a sideline reporter for ABC-TV's coverage of the USFL in 1983-84.

Davis served as play-by-play announcer for the first Ravens game played at M&T Bank Stadium on August 8, 1998, an exhibition game between the Baltimore Ravens and Chicago Bears. He lists one of his greatest thrills as calling Cal Ripken's 400th career home run in 1999, as well as hosting the 2014 celebration of the Orioles American League East Championship on MASN.

In addition to his work on Orioles broadcasts, Davis hosts a number of sports talk shows on MASN, including "Wall to Wall Baseball," "Touchdown Baltimore" and "Take Me Out To The Ballgame." The radio version of "Wall to Wall Baseball" is heard after each Orioles broadcast throughout the season.

A graduate of Calvert Hall College High School, Davis received a bachelor's degree in marketing from the University of Baltimore in 1971. He lives in Baltimore County with his wife, Bonnie, and is the father of three adult children – Malinda, Tad, and Mandi. He has two grandchildren, Hunter and Georgia.

RICK DEMPSEY

MASN ANALYST

Orioles Hall of Famer and 1983 World Series MVP Rick Dempsey enters his 12th year as a member of the Orioles broadcast team. He appears on "O's Xtra" pregame and postgame shows on MASN.

This season marks Dempsey's 52nd year in professional baseball. He played for six teams across 24 seasons in the majors, including more than 11 with the Orioles. Dempsey is tied for eighth all-time among modern era players in seasons played and is one of only three catchers to play in four decades. He played on three World Series teams and won two championships, including 1983 when he was named the World Series MVP in the Orioles' victory over Philadelphia.

Dempsey's Major League career began with the Minnesota Twins in 1969. He then spent parts of four seasons with the New York Yankees before being traded to the Orioles in 1976 as part of a 10-player swap that also brought the O's Tippy Martinez and Scott McGregor. He became Baltimore's regular catcher in 1977 and caught a club-record 1,222 games. After leaving Baltimore, Dempsey played for Cleveland (1987), Los Angeles-NL (1988-90), and Milwaukee (1991) before returning to the Orioles for his final season in 1992.

Following his playing career, Dempsey was a manager in the Los Angeles Dodgers' and New York Mets' farm systems, compiling a winning record in three of five seasons. He was a member of the Dodgers' Major League coaching staff from 1999-2000 before returning to the Orioles as an analyst for Comcast SportsNet in 2001. From 2002-06, he served in a variety of roles on the Orioles coaching staff.

Dempsey and his wife, Joani, live in Westlake Village, a suburb of Los Angeles. They have two sons, John and Christian. Several of Dempsey's family members played professional baseball, including his son John, his younger brother Pat, his nephew, Gregg Zaun, and his cousin, Dick Young. The son of an actor, Dempsey entertained crowds as a player during rain delays with his impersonations of Babe Ruth.

JIM HUNTER

MASN & ORIOLES RADIO ANNOUNCER

Veteran broadcaster Jim Hunter returns for his 22nd season as a member of the Orioles broadcast team and will call a majority of games on the Orioles Radio Network this season. He will also call games on MASN for the 15th-straight season.

Hunter's extensive 40-year broadcasting career includes seven MLB postseasons, 12 Super Bowls, and two Winter Olympic Games, including 1992 in Albertville, France and 1994 in Lillehammer, Norway. He has worked alongside Hall of Fame Players Johnny Bench, Jerry Coleman, and Jim Palmer, as well as legendary Hall of Fame broadcaster Ernie Harwell.

Hunter, 59, began his broadcasting career in 1978 at WJLK Radio in Asbury Park, N.J. before moving to CBS Sports Radio in 1982. While with CBS Sports Radio, he served as the anchor on several shows, including "Sports Central USA," "Sports Break" and "Inside Pitch". He was also a member of the network's MLB "Game of the Week" announcing team for 10 years, as well as a host for NFL Preview and NFL pregame and halftime reports.

An active parishioner at St. Mark's Roman Catholic Church and a 3rd degree member of the Knights Of Columbus, Hunter is involved in numerous charitable projects within the Archdiocese of Baltimore, including helping the Little Sisters of the Poor. During the offseason, he also makes appearances in the community on behalf of the Orioles.

In 2002, Hunter was named Maryland Sportscaster of the Year by The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. He also received the prestigious Radio/TV Media Excellence Award from the New Jersey Sportswriters Association in 1998.

A native of Hazlet, N.J., Hunter is a 1977 graduate of St. John Vianney High School, and was inducted into the school's athletic Hall of Fame for football and baseball in 1994. He attended Brookdale Community College and graduated from Seton Hall University with a bachelor's degree in communication arts in 1982. In February of 2018, he was inducted to the Brookdale Athletic Hall of Fame. Hunter resides in Fallston, Md. with his wife, Bonnie. They have three adult children – Jimmy, Jeff, and Allie.

BEN McDONALD

ORIOLES RADIO ANALYST

Former Orioles pitcher Ben McDonald will once again serve as an analyst for select games on the Orioles Radio Network.

The first overall selection in the 1989 First-Year Player Draft, McDonald pitched for the Orioles for seven seasons between 1989 and 1995. McDonald threw a complete-game shutout against the Chicago White Sox in his first Major League start and is one of only two first overall selections to win his first three Major League starts. He finished his playing career with the Milwaukee Brewers from 1996-97.

McDonald was a standout pitcher at Louisiana State University, where he twice led the Tigers to the College World Series. He set an LSU career mark for strikeouts with 373 and set several Southeastern Conference records, including single-season strikeouts (202) and consecutive scoreless innings (44.2). He was a two-time All-American, a 1988 Olympic gold medalist, and he won the Golden Spikes Award in 1989. McDonald was elected to the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008.

McDonald also provides analysis for ESPN and SEC Network coverage of college baseball. McDonald and his wife, Nicole, have two children – Jorie and Jase.

JIM PALMER

MASN ANALYST

The winningest pitcher in Orioles history, Hall of Famer Jim Palmer returns for his 26th season as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts and 55th season as a member of the Orioles organization. Prior to joining the Orioles as a broadcaster, he served as an analyst on ABC from 1978 through 1995, calling Monday Night Baseball, All-Star Games, and several MLB postseasons, including World Series games. He also called Little League World Series games for 15 years. Palmer previously provided analysis on Orioles broadcasts for Home Team Sports and WMAR-TV.

Palmer's biography and pitching record can be found on page 369. He lives in Palm Beach, Fla. and Corona del Mar, Calif. with his wife, Susan. They have three children – Jamie, Kelly, and Spencer.

BRIAN ROBERTS

ORIOLES RADIO ANALYST

Former Orioles second baseman Brian Roberts will provide analysis for select games on the Orioles Radio Network this season. Roberts served as a guest analyst on MASN in 2016 and has provided analysis on FOX's MLB broadcasts and in studio on MLB Network. Roberts also serves as a fill-in host on various MLB Network Radio programs.

One of the best second basemen in Orioles history, Roberts spent 13 of his 14 Major League seasons with Baltimore. A two-time All-Star, Roberts tied for the American League lead with 50 stolen bases in 2007 and ranks second on the Orioles' all-time career stolen bases list (278). He ranks in the Orioles' all-time top 10 in a number of offensive categories including runs (6th), hits (9th), doubles (4th), triples (6th), extra-base hits (7th), and walks (7th). Roberts was drafted by the Orioles in the 1999 First-Year Player Draft out of the University of South Carolina, where he spent his junior year after two years with the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Roberts and his wife, Diana, reside in Sarasota, Fla. where they are active in the local community. The couple has two sons, Jax and Nash. Roberts is a supporter of the Orioles Health & Fitness Challenge, which promotes healthy lifestyles for middle-school aged children in Sarasota County Schools. The Roberts have also dedicated their time and resources to the Child Protection Center in Sarasota, a nonprofit organization dedicated to prevention, intervention, and treatment for victims of child abuse.

GARY THORNE

MASN ANNOUNCER

Gary Thorne is one of the most recognizable voices in sports broadcasting, having covered Major League Baseball, the National Hockey League, the Olympics, and NCAA athletics during his illustrious 51-year broadcasting career. This year marks his 33rd season as an MLB play-by-play announcer, and his 12th on MASN broadcasts.

Thorne has broadcast 12 World Series, 17 MLB All-Star Games, and four World Baseball Classics, as well as 18 NHL seasons, including Stanley Cup playoffs and finals for ABC/ESPN. He also covered three Olympics with CBS and NBC, and hosted the National Baseball Hall of Fame induction ceremonies at Cooperstown for eight years. He broadcast New York Mets games on radio and TV for 13 seasons, including the 1986 World Series.

Throughout his distinguished career, Thorne has received five Emmys: one for his Orioles coverage on MASN in 2009, two for his work with Mets TV, one for his work broadcasting New Jersey Devils hockey, and one for his call of the Minnesota Boys High School 2014 State Hockey Tournament.

Prior to joining MASN, Thorne broadcast baseball on ESPN for 22 years, along with numerous other sports, and served as the network's original host and moderator of "The Sports Reporters". In 1989, Thorne served as the voice of the Chicago White Sox on WFLD-TV and teamed with Hall of Famer Joe Morgan on ABC's Thursday night telecasts, including coverage at the 1989 World Series, when an earthquake struck San Francisco. He has also broadcast games for Baseball Network and FOX Sports.

For many years, Thorne did NHL play-by-play on SportsChannel, where he voiced national games on SportsChannel America, as well as calling New Jersey Devils games for SportsChannel New York.

Thorne is a 1970 graduate of the University of Maine with a bachelor's degree in business. He graduated from the University of Maine School of Law in 1973 and received a doctorate in law in 1976 from the Georgetown University Law Center. He is a former assistant district attorney in Bangor, Maine, and was admitted to the Bar of the United States Supreme Court in March 1977. He was also a member of the Army JAG Corps.

"SARASOTA'S CROWN JEWEL"

Since 2010, the Orioles have held Major League Spring Training operations in Sarasota, Fla. at Ed Smith Stadium, Sarasota's Crown Jewel. The facility was fully renovated in 2011, complete with four practice fields, one practice half-field, a clubhouse, indoor batting cages, pitching mounds, stadium field lights, an electronic scoreboard, concession facilities, locker rooms for umpires, tournament office hub, press box, expansive concourse areas, and ample parking. Its modern amenities, mixed with historical Florida architecture, have helped Ed Smith Stadium truly become "Birdland South."

The Orioles' longtime minor league facility, the Buck O'Neil Baseball Complex at Twin Lakes Park, is as much a hub of Spring Training activity as Ed Smith Stadium. The facility hosts Orioles' Dream Week in January and remains astir with baseball activity throughout the year. Youth baseball tournaments are held at the complex year-round as part of the Orioles' effort to drive economic impact within the Sarasota community.

Along with Major League Spring Training and Gulf Coast League Orioles games, the Ed Smith Stadium complex and Buck O'Neil Baseball Complex at Twin Lakes Park host amateur tournaments and other baseball-related events, along with special events and OriolesREACH initiatives through the Sarasota 365 program, demonstrating that the club's commitment to its southern home goes far beyond baseball.

ORIOLES IN SARASOTA FAST FACTS

- Since moving year-round operations to Sarasota in 2010, the Orioles have donated more than $3 million in cash and in-kind contributions to the community.
- In 2017, the Orioles drew 119,742 fans for 17 home games in Sarasota, marking the second-highest spring attendance in club history behind only the 120,455 total set in 2013. Since moving Major League operations to Sarasota, 855,055 fans have enjoyed Orioles Spring Training baseball at Ed Smith Stadium.
- According to a recent independent analysis commissioned by Sarasota County, the Orioles' economic impact in the state of Florida is more than $97 million annually.
- In a recent study conducted for USA TODAY, ReviewTrackers, a data-mining firm in Chicago, found Ed Smith Stadium as the top venue among Major League Baseball Spring Training sites in both Florida and Arizona, tracking how fans felt about the facility itself, food and drink offerings, and the overall experience for fans and families.
- Thanks to almost $10 million in tourism focused media provided by the Orioles to Sarasota County, the number of yearly first-quarter visitors from the Mid-Atlantic has grown by more than 300 percent since 2009.
- Baltimore-Washington ranked as the second-highest in origin of out-of-state visitors to Sarasota in 2016.
- More than 135,000 players, families, and spectators have participated in various youth baseball tournaments and games at Ed Smith Stadium and the Buck O'Neil Baseball complex since 2013, averaging 27,000 each year.

The Sports Turf Managers Association (STMA) named Ed Smith Stadium the recipient of the "Field of the Year Award" for professional baseball in January 2016. STMA's "Field of the Year Award" is considered the highest honor in the industry, awarded annually to various sporting grounds members at the professional, collegiate, schools, and parks and recreation levels.
